

Harding Submits Three Proposals For Immediate Ending Of Rail Strike

Embargoes In Effect On Coal-Carrying Roads

N. & W., C. & O. And L. & N. To Accept Only Foodstuffs, Livestock And Fuel

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Three coal-carrying railroads, the Norfolk & Western, Chesapeake & Ohio and Louisville & Nashville, have declared embargoes over their lines against the acceptance of any freight except foodstuffs, live stock and fuel. This action was taken under the interstate commerce commission declaration of any emergency which authorized roads embarrassed by the shippers' strike to show preference and establish priority in transportation.

The object of the embargoes is to conserve all the equipment and facilities of the three carriers for the transportation of coal. The roads serve the non-union bituminous mid-

PERIL TO INDUSTRIAL LIFE OF OHIO SEEN

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Peril to the industrial life of Ohio is seen here today through interpretation of a statement alleged to have been made by Secretary of War John W. Weeks, and printed in a local newspaper yesterday to the effect that Ohio can not hope to obtain coal supplies from outside this state.

"If this declaration is put into effect," said W. D. McKinney, secretary of the Southern Ohio Coal Operators' Exchange, after he had been informed of the secretary's ruling, "Ohio will be face to face with industrial paralysis."

He further said that "adoption of such an attitude on the part of the federal government is tantamount to coercion."

Mr. McKinney said that the average daily consumption of coal in Ohio was over 100,000 tons and that the present production of coal, chiefly that coming from stripping mines, amounted to only 60,000 tons per week. The 40,000 tons mined weekly would not even be equal to supplying the needs of the state's public institutions, he asserted, and said that when the supply now on hand was exhausted all private plants would have to shut down.

Regardless of the protection offered operators, production within the state has not materially increased, and operators can see no hope of an increased output until an agreement is reached with the miners.

Rail Executives To Meet In New York Next Tuesday To Take Up Settlement Offers

RAILROAD DEVELOPMENTS

(By The Associated Press)
Three proposals for settlement of the strike settlement, hinging on the seniority question, reported to have been made by President Harding. Executives of 148 railroads will meet in New York Tuesday, supposedly to discuss president's peace plans.

Strike leaders said to be preparing for a meeting in Chicago for the same purpose.

Reports from all sections indicate increase in acts of violence. Union officials declare men prepared "to fight to a finish," despite fact no strike benefits are being paid.

B. M. Jewell, his executive council and Timothy Healy, delay departure from Washington, indicating further conferences with President Harding.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Three proposals for immediate ending of the railroad strike have been submitted to representatives of railroad executives and labor unions by President Harding, according to information obtained today from administration advisers, who talked with the executive.

The three proposals, all hinging on various plans for adjusting the employees' seniority rights, will be submitted, it was said, to the executives' meeting in New York Tuesday and to an employees' conference in Chicago to be arranged by B. M. Jewell, the shippers' leader.

There were indications from various sources close to the two parties to the strike that leaders of the shippers expressed an inclination to accept the president's plan in the main and that representatives of the executives considered it unsatisfactory in principle.

Final decision, however, will rest with conferences of the two groups. Outside railroad contracting, it was said, would be abandoned by the railroads under each of the three proposals. One of the proposals, according to those claiming to have information of the president's suggestions, would be for the railroads to waive the seniority question and take all strikers back to work.

Another was said to be to give loyal men who have remained at work prior seniority rights over strikers and the third was for separate adjustment of the seniority dispute by each road with its own employees through joint committees to be appointed.

Soon after the status of the president's proposals had become known and after the cabinet session at which it was presumed the executive had outlined them to his advisers, Mr. Jewell appeared at the White House for another conference with President Harding. The

TROOPS SENT TO QUELL KENTUCKY OUTBREAKS

MIDDLESBORO, KY., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—State troops were en route here today from Barboursville and Williamsburg to restore order at the Yellow Creek mines in Bell county, along the Tennessee border, where mine strike sympathizers yesterday were reported to have fired upon miners going to work in the Bryson Mountain mine. The situation is regarded as critical, despite the coming of troops, as strike sympathizers have declared that a clash is almost certain if troops are sent to that point.

It was not known here early today if an appeal for aid from Tennessee authorities had been sent. The mine mouth is in Tennessee and the mine camp is in Kentucky.

One miner was wounded and several others narrowly escaped injury at a Bryson Mountain, Tenn., yesterday, when a party of alleged strike sympathizers fired a fusillade of shots at them as the miners were enroute to work.

The entire territory is reported to be in a high pitch of excitement as the result of an armed miners' parade through the mine region.

A majority of the workers are leaving the camp, it was reported. Miners declare if state troops are sent here there will be a battle. They claim they are amply supplied with firearms and ammunition.

The Bryson Mountain Mine is controlled by Mayor J. H. Keener. He said he had not asked for state troops, but would do so. The first outbreak of strikers occurred here three weeks ago and conditions since have been unsettled. Bryson Mountain is just across the state line in a heavily wooded region in a rough country.

POWERFUL INFLUENCES AT WORK TO END THE COAL STRIKE, SAYS LEWIS

COAL STRIKE DEVELOPMENTS

(By The Associated Press)
Ohio and Illinois appoint state fuel administrators. Colorado fair price commission announces a fair maximum price of lump coal from lignite fields at $3.90 a ton.

A decision as to whether Indiana coal operators would participate in a conference for the central competitive field is expected at the conference between operators and Gov. McCray.

One hundred and fifty Colorado guardsmen relieved of active guard duty. Five governors sent assurances to Secretary Hoover that his anti-profiteering plan for retail coal would receive every aid. Gov. Morrison, North Carolina, asserted the government was encroaching on state rights. Violence reported from coal fields of Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

and the strike seemed little nearer a settlement.

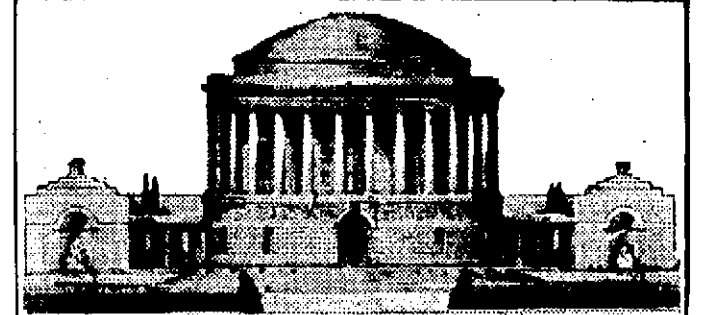

Mr. Lewis' statement that he had "every reason to believe that an interstate joint conference of the central competitive fields will be arranged within a few days," was discounted by officials of the National Coal Association at Washington. They said that the decision had been reached to make no move in the central field.

Meanwhile, Secretary Hoover was receiving assurance from the governors of various states that the federal government would receive every aid from them in preventing retail profiteering in coal during the strike emergency. Governor Shoup, of Colorado, indicated that he would today add his assurance to that of the governors of Iowa, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Minnesota and Kansas, already received by the secretary of commerce.

Governor Morrison, of North Carolina, however, declared that the federal government is engaged in a steady encroachment upon the rights of the state, in an address before the convention of the state prices association.

Sharp Disagreement On Harding's Attitude

LANSING, Mich., July 28.—A letter from President Harding declaring in effect that the federal government is powerless to interfere with the attitude of the United Mine Workers of America toward independent local agreements; that at present nothing can be done except to enable men who are willing to work to do so in safety; and that the big issue in the coal strike is national dictation, hesitatingly assumed by the mine workers, which must be taken care of by legislation, today drew a sharp disagreement from Governor Alex J. Groesbeck.

Replying to a letter from the president, Gov. Groesbeck declared he could not concede the federal government has not the power "to protect our citizens from the embarrassing situation that faces us."

The president's letter was in reply to a telegram sent by the governor last week when he informed the national executive he was asking John L. Lewis, president of the mine workers, to grant Michigan miners permission to enter arguments independently of their national affiliation and return to work. The president in his reply stated he would work legislation to solve the problem of independent agreements.

Presbyterian Suspend Rev. Irwin From Church

LAWTON, OKLA., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Unanimous decision that Rev. J. Irwin was guilty of charges "unbecoming a minister," was reached in his trial before the judicial commission of the El Reno Presbytery early today. The minister, who was formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, was indefinitely suspended from the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

Rev. Irwin was adjudged guilty of the following charges:

That he disciplined members of the Lawton congregation without due process.

That he brought discredit upon the Presbyterian church as a whole, by wading into a public pool garbed in a bathing suit and marrying a couple also wearing bathing suits.

The trial of the minister was conducted in secret. None of the evidence was made public. Mr. Irwin, refusing the right of counsel by the commission, defended himself.

Mr. Irwin faces trial in the district court here on a charge of arson, in connection with an alleged incendiary fire in his church last April.

"You are indefinitely suspended as a minister of the Presbyterian church, United States of America, and may the Lord have mercy on you," read the verdict of the trial body.

Mr. Irwin, on advice of his counsel, refused to comment on the verdict.

DAVIS NAMES OHIO FUEL CONTROL BOARD

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Governor Harry L. Davis today appointed a commission that will have full control of coal distribution to the people of Ohio during the coal strike.

George Poor, chairman of the state public utilities commission, was named chairman of the new coal body, which will be known as the Ohio Fuel Administration Commission.

Mr. Poor in effect will be state fuel administrator, it was announced.

Governor Davis directed that Poor immediately select other members of the new commission, which, it was said, is to comprise the other two members of the state utilities commission and traffic authorities representative of the Cleveland, Toledo, Cincinnati and Steubenville districts. In addition, other members will be placed on the commission if need for such action develops.

Formation of the new fuel administration was made by Governor Davis, he announced, in conference with the request of President Harding transmitted through Secretary Hoover.

CABLE SLIPS; TRAFFIC CURTAILED

NEW YORK, July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Discovery that one of the four huge cables which support the famous old Brooklyn bridge had slipped from its saddle, was the cause for the issuance of an order last month, removing motor traffic from the bridge, Grover A. Whalen, commissioner of plant and structures, announced today.

In a letter to Mayor Hylan, the commissioner recommended rebuilding the bridge and the construction of an additional bridge to care for the growing traffic between Manhattan and Long Island.

Commissioner Whalen declared that the old bridge was safe for the present curtailed traffic.

Political Posters Ordered Down

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Orders to tear down all political posters along the state highway system after primary election day, August 8, were issued here today by Director of Highways Herriek to his field men. Only the highway department and the telephone company has the right to tear political advertising signs from poles, said Herriek. Herriek declared that these signs always had been an eyesore and he was determined to get rid of them early this year.

Seize Carload Of "Real Beer"

CLEVELAND, O., July 28.—(By The Associated Press)—Federal prohibition agents this morning were waiting for some one to claim a freight car containing a shipment of 3,200 gallons of what is believed to be "real" beer in barrels which was seized by federal prohibition agents in the Pennsylvania railroad yards last night. The beer was shipped here from Sharon, Pa., consigned to the Great Lakes Sash and Door Company and a local distributing company, it was said.

PLACING OF EMBARGO ONLY THING NEW IN LOCAL STRIKE SITUATION

Announcement that a freight embargo had been placed in effect by the N. & W. and C. & O. was the only new development in the railroad strike here today. The railroads were authorized to place a freight embargo by the Inter-State Commerce Commission. The Commission's ruling is that coal and coke are to be given first choice in freight movement. Next comes the movement of empty coal cars and foodstuffs for human and animal consumption. After that, should the railroads have time and equipment to move other freight, the necessities of life, such as clothing and shoes and general merchandise will be given preference over steel products, brick for highways, etc.

At the East Portsmouth office of the N. & W. today it was stated that all kinds of freight are being handled at present, and that an effort would be made to keep up this movement but should the company find itself unable to maintain the present service the embargo orders would govern freight movements. On the C. & O. coal, coke and foodstuffs will be kept moving according to local C. & O. Agent D. A. Grimes. Considerable freight is being moved at the C. & O. freight station by a small force of men engaged by Mr. Grimes. The embargo is expected to help in the moving of coal. With coal having first choice the railroads are expected to move all coal that can be mined. The movement of empty coal cars will also help in this movement.

C. H. Chase, O. F. Strong and Robert Dodds, the committee representing the striking N. & W. shopmen here who appeared in Judge Peck's court at Cincinnati yesterday with their attorney Nicholas Klein returned home late last night. Attorney Henry Bannion of this city appeared for the N. & W. relative to the hearing on the injunction petition the Cincinnati Enquirer had the following today.

The continuance was ordered by the Court upon the representation of Attorney Nicholas Klein, Cincinnati, representing the strikers, that he just had been retained in the case and that he would, if given time, show to the Court there is no necessity for the granting of the injunction sought by the railway company. Mr. Klein told the Court: It was his information that there had been no trouble at Portsmouth which would justify the issuance of a preliminary restraining order, and that this statement could be proven by the testimony of the Mayor of Portsmouth, the Chief of Police and other officials of the city of Portsmouth. His request for a continuance was granted by Judge Peck, who extended the temporary restraining order, issued last week, until August 7.

Lewis Sedan Overturns On Way Back From Taking Durand To Columbus

A sedan owned by R. E. Lewis, proprietor of the Mary Louise Caudy Shoppe, and driven by his son, Raymond Lewis, turned over and was badly damaged about 5:30 last evening. The accident occurred just this side of Waverly, when Raymond Lewis, who was returning from taking Homer Durand to Columbus, ran into a stretch of sand and soft dirt in the road. When the machine hit the bad stretch, it skidded and turned over. A young man who was coming to Picketon and who was picked up by Lewis in Waverly, also figured in the accident, in which neither of the occupants was injured.

The sedan was righted and was towed back to Waverly, where a local garage man went to bring back the machine this morning. One of the front wheels of the machine was broken off, the windshield smashed, several side glasses broken and the top dented, were the damages sustained by the car.

A GOOD TWO-REEL COMEDY

And Pathe News

The first arrest locally to the shopmen's and clerks' railroad strike was made Thursday afternoon when J. N. Saunders, Chief Clerk to C. & O. Agent D. A. Grimes was taken into custody by United States deputy marshals on charges that he tried to intimidate railroad workers in violation of an injunction granted the C. & O. against striking shopmen and clerks. The restraining order was granted several days ago by United States Judge A. M. J. Cochran at Mansville.

Saunders had been working for the C. & O. for some years at South Portsmouth until he went on strike with the C. & O. clerks recently. The arrest was the result of a complaint made by A. L. Thomas, who recently took a job on the C. & O. ferry replacing a man who went out on strike. According to Thomas, Saunders approached him while he was seated on a bench in the C. & O. depot at South Portsmouth Wednesday afternoon and asked if his name was Thomas. Thomas says that when he replied that his name was Thomas, Saunders said "It is best for you to get away from here where you're not wanted before things get too hot for you." Thomas claims that Saunders spoke in a low tone and walked away after making the alleged threatening remark.

Thomas has been employed by the C. & O. only four days. Saunders was taken to the Cliftesburg jail on a C. & O. train Thursday afternoon and this morning in company with men arrested at Ashland was taken to Maysville to have a hearing before Judge Cochran.

Relative to arrests at Ashland and Russell the Ashland Independent of Thursday had the following: Six striking C. & O. shopmen, arrested here today and Wednesday night for alleged violation of the federal restraining order preventing them from interfering with the management of the railroad and employees who take their places, were permitted to give bond in the sum of $300 each late this afternoon and were released from the county jail where they had been kept since their arrest.

The bonds are effective until Friday morning at 10 o'clock when the six men are to appear before United States Judge A. M. J. Cochran at Maysville. The six men are P. P. Carr, Grayson Road, Howard Shuff, Holland, William Morrison, East Greenup avenue; George Nebout, Twenty-second street; Ed Barber and Estil Kelly, Folland.

The arrest of these men Wednesday night and this morning is caused by the first alleged infraction of the federal restraining order, handed down by Judge Cochran nine days ago.

Special Deputy United States Marshals Elliott McCarthy, W. F. Treadway, Sr., and W. F. Treadway, Jr., of Covington, made the arrests. Treadway, Sr., informed the Independent today that a group of striking C. & O. shopmen congregated near Cliftesburg Park late yesterday afternoon to meet a number of men whom the C. & O. was bringing here to work in the local railroad shops and roundhouse.

He said that the strikers threatened, abused, intimidated and tried to prevent the men from changing into another car to be taken to the shops. He said that the men got into automobiles and went to the roundhouse or near it and were there when the strike breakers reached the scene. He alleged that the same tactics were repeated there as at Cliftesburg.

Leaders Arrested

Treadway immediately got into telephone communication with Sawyer A. Smith, United States district attorney, who, he claims, told him to arrest five or six of the leaders of the striking party. This he did, he said. The warrants for the men were to arrive on a late train today.

Carr and Shuff were arrested near midnight last night. The others were taken this morning. All were placed in the county jail and held until they were allowed bond.

Bebout said this morning to the Independent that he was arrested about nine o'clock at his home, just as he was preparing to eat his breakfast. He said that the three of ficers permitted him to finish his breakfast before taking him to jail. "I want you to put in the paper that we are all proud to be in jail for such a cause. We feel that we are honored," Bebout said to the Independent.

Carr Claims Violence

Pullman Carr claims that three officers committed violence when they arrested him last night. He said they came about eleven o'clock and that after he let them in, they forced him to leave his house not fully dressed. He also claims that one of the men struck him in the face with his fist and that the others made passes at him with blackjacks.

Lester P. Reed, one of the strikers at Russell, Ky., was arrested Wednesday afternoon by a deputy United States marshal. He was taken to a preliminary hearing and on to Cliftesburg, where he was released on bond to appear in Judge Cochran's court Friday morning.

Mr. Reed, who is a son of S. E. Reed, of Sedgewick, protests his innocence strongly.

Harding Submits Proposals

strike leader, who was uncompromising, refused to discuss the situation, declaring, "this thing has come to the point where we all can do good if we keep quiet for a couple of days." He said he did not know how long he and the union leaders who came here with him yesterday, from Chicago would remain in Washington.

The belief was expressed that the further discussion between Mr. Jewell and the president proved satisfactory the striking organization would convene immediately a general convention in which a representative of each craft on each of the railroads where the strike is in force would be seated. The presidential proposals would have to pass the examination of such a body, but the national officers of the unions might, if they cared to, recommend acceptance, swifling the whole gathering into line.

On the contrary, their opposition would probably make it certain that the general convention would also oppose.

Such a meeting, it was known, was discussed with the president, but the final decision for its calling hinged upon the further conferences arranged for today.

Mr. Jewell went directly from the White House to a conference with the associated executive officers of striking unions in the railroad service, at machinists' union headquarters. It was indicated the meeting would last some time.

"Not a word," he said as he hastened away.

The president was said by his advisers to believe that three proposals promised considerable hope of a strike settlement and to have declared that "more clouds had passed away" in the railway situation within the past few hours than for several weeks.

Rehearsing by the railroad labor board of the shopmen's wage question was said to be embraced in all three of the proposals. One proposal, it was said, also contemplated that both employers and employees agree that hereafter the board's rulings be observed without question.

The president has suggested with reference to seniority, it was asserted, that as an initial step under one proposal the labor board be given complete jurisdiction over the seniority controversy. If this could not be agreed upon, it was said, the president proposed as a substitute the plan for settlement by the executives and employees of each separate road through joint committees composed of three members representing each party to the controversy.

In event of disagreement of such committees, it was proposed that the question then be taken to some form of arbitration tribunal.

All administration officials acquainted with the proposals appeared to share the president's view that a basis upon which the strikers might return to work had been worked out.

The conference between Mr. Jewell and his colleagues also ended without a statement from any of those participating.

Mr. Jewell, accompanied by W. H. Johnston, international president of the machinists, and J. A. Franklin, president of the boilermakers' union, immediately returned to the White House.

Railroad Executives To Meet

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—With tentative proposals for settlement of the railroad shopmen's strike drawn up after conference between President Harding and labor leaders, the situation was expected today to remain more or less at a status quo pending the meeting of railroad executives of the 148 major railroads of the country, called by T. DeWitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives, to be held in New York next Tuesday to consider a plan for settling the strike made by Mr. Cuyler after a conference with President Harding last night.

Union Officials Remain

Although union officials continued to withhold comment on their White House conferences, hopeful progress was seen today because they were remaining here. It was believed they intended to stay in Washington pending the outcome of the railway executives' meeting Tuesday.

Mr. Cuyler in announcing that the rail heads would be called together, was emphatic in the statement that "no definite basis" for a strike settlement was ready to be placed before them. It was understood also that the president urged in his conferences with Mr. Cuyler that the railroads agree to the union demand for restoration of seniority rights to strikers.

Opposes Separate Agreement

The opposition of Mr. Jewell to a separate settlement of the strike on the Baltimore & Ohio appeared to have ended all prospect for prior action by the striking shopmen of that road on the pending company proposals.

Developments here in the coal strike situation in the last 24 hours included the statement of officials of the National Coal Association that they had been authorized by Alfred M. Ogil, president of that organization, to deny any report that a meet-

Peace Plans More Tangible
CHICAGO, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Plans for peace in the railroad strike again today seemed to be assuming a more tangible form and the hope was expressed that the 300,000 union shopmen soon would resume work and submit their grievances to the United States railroad labor board.

The announcement that a plan for settlement of the walk-out would be put before a meeting in New York Tuesday of executives of 148 of the largest railroads, together with President Harding's statement indicating that he would ask the labor board to grant the shopmen a rehearing was taken in rail circles here to mean that the rail conferences would leave settlements of the issues involved to the board.

B. & O. Conference Runs Smoothly
While the conference at Baltimore of B. & O. officials with their striking workmen was reported to have progressed smoothly toward an agreement, R. M. Jewell, head of the shop crafts workers, was withholding approval of a separate peace until all plans for a national settlement had been thoroughly discussed.

In view of statements made by some rail heads that striking shopmen returning to work must come back as new employees, it was pointed out that in case the railway executives failed to arrive at an agreement on the seniority question, the men going back to work could, if denied their old places, take the dispute to the labor board without sanction of the executives.

Increase In Violence
There was a noticeable increase in the number of reports of violence reaching here. In San Bernardino a special guard employed by the Santa Fe was shot and killed.

A striking shopman, who was shot at Creston, Iowa, by a railroad guard, died in a hospital.

A white man and a negro were wounded and several negroes injured when the negroes were attacked by unidentified men at Macon, Ga. About fifty shots were fired.

Twenty-six disputes involving wages and working conditions on various railroads were filed with the national board by E. F. Grubbe, chief of the maintenance of way men's union, in accord with the peace program adopted by him.

Shops of the Chesapeake & Ohio at Covington, Ky., were opened with a full force, the railroad announced.

At Muskogee, Okla., contracts with mines shipping coal to public utilities and institutions cancelled by the United Mine Workers were renewed. Violence increased in connection with the coal strike in Kentucky.

Powerful

It was expected that the president's coal commission which had been working to perfect an organization to carry out the coal program, would be ready to function by the first of next

West Virginia and Pennsylvania, six weeks.

A clash between state troops and strike sympathizers was thought to be a possibility in the Middleboro, Ky., mining district. Twenty-five infantry men and their officers were on their way to the Yellow Creek mines, where strike sympathizers were reported to have fired on miners going to work and strike leaders here said if the troops arrived at the mines trouble was almost certain.

DECREASE IN STEEL OUTPUT DUE TO STRIKE

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—A decrease in iron and steel production in the Youngstown district beginning Monday seems inevitable, according to predictions by plant operators made today. A cut in operating schedules will be caused as much by the high price of such coal as can be obtained as by the absolute lack of fuel, it was stated.

Mill executives declared that at the present price of steel products it would be "ruinous" to manufacture with coal costing $3 and $4 a ton. Contracts made by the mills expire partly on August 1 and partly on August 15.

Great interest is being taken by operators here in efforts to re-open mines in Pennsylvania. Most Youngstown plants have their own mines in that state, but the collieries have been closed since the beginning of the miners' strike. Continued employment for this district is 30,000, and is said to rest largely on the success of the attempt to re-open the mines.

Finishing mills here probably will continue to run for some time until their supply of raw material is exhausted.

Chinese Resume Battle

CANTON, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Fighting between the troops of Sun Yat Sen, the deposed president of the southern republic here, and those of General Chen Ching-Ming, the leader supporting the cause of the central republic in Peking, has been resumed, after two days respite, near Shu-chow, about 130 miles north of Canton.

ARMY DIRIGIBLE IN NON-STOP FLIGHT

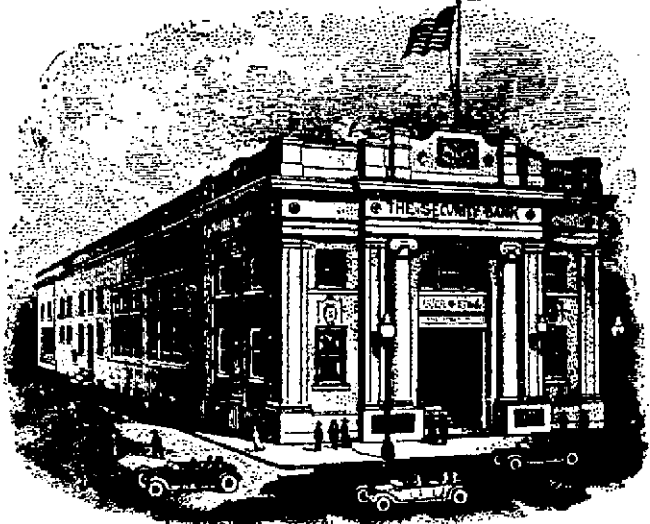

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Army dirigible C-2 arrived at the Aberdeen, Maryland, proving ground at 6:00 a. m., concluding the return trip of a non-stop flight to New York, upon which the big dirigible left Bolling field here at 5:00 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship reached New York about 12:30 a. m. today and after circling over the city and crossing Manhattan was reported to have disappeared in a short time on her return trip.

The trip, which consumed eleven hours, was said in army reports received here to have been without incident in carrying out the purpose of training pilots in night flying. A crew of twelve manned the huge "blimp," which has a gas bag measuring 182 feet. She came here from Aberdeen yesterday to make the state from Bolling field.

Unemployment In Germany At Low Level

BERLIN, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The number of unemployed in Germany has dropped to a level seldom attained even before the war, according to figures published by the Tageblatt. The total of completely unemployed persons requiring relief fell from 25,700 in June to 19,500 in July.

Gold Bricking Charge Made Against Durand

CINCINNATI, July 28.—Senator Arthur H. Durand, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in an address here tonight declared that Homer Durand was "gold bricking" the public in his attempt to secure the nomination.

Day also repeated his declarations that Carmi A. Thompson, Harvey C. Smith and Charles L. Knight were violating the law in the matter of campaign expenditures.

"I charged that Knight was spending $25,000 for the rentals of billboards alone. He claims that he is getting the billboards for $700. The millionaire candidate from Euclid Village is spending money like a tourist overseas. He is circulating a book which costs $15,000," Day declared.

"The Newberry trio, Thompson, Smith and Knight, are flooding the state with a force of paid political workers in their behalf. The scale of these workers seems to be set at $15 a day and expenses. I will not spend a penny over $5,000 specified by law."

Day will speak tomorrow at Lancaster and Greenville.

FEDERAL MARSHAL ASSAULTED

CINCINNATI, July 28.—U. S. Marshals are searching for a man who early today attacked and so badly beat Howard Gau, special U. S. deputy, that he was sent to a hospital. Gau was serving writs in the injunction suit of the Baltimore and Ohio restraining striking shipmen from interfering with operations of the company.

According to the story Gau told U. S. marshals he approached a man and asked where he could find one of the persons named in the writ he was serving. Gau said the man exclaimed, "I suppose you are another one of those railroad dicks (detectives)," and began to attack him.

The extent of Gau's injury has not been determined, attending physicians stated.

VERY LITTLE LIQUOR DRAWN FROM BOND IN OHIO, REPORTS SHOW.

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—Only 650 gallons of bonded whiskey were withdrawn from Ohio warehouses in the state during the month of June, according to an announcement made here today by J. E. Conditions in Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dayton were very "gratifying," Mr. Russell said.

Kellogg's Bran means so much to the health of every one who eats it!

Start eating Bran today! You can't afford the delay of a day—for BEAN—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is nature's own remedy for constipation. Eliminate constipation or its symptoms from your system and you add years to your life. Free yourself of illness that can be directly traced to this distressing condition! Authorities state that 90% of human illness has its beginning with constipation, which clogs the eliminative passages, backing up poisons and creating toxic conditions. At this stage the blood becomes affected and then follows the disorder of various organs. Bright's disease, diabetes, most cases of rheumatism, hardening of arteries, headaches, brain lag, etc., are directly caused by intestinal poisoning. Pills and cathartics can give no adequate relief. They are not only temporary in their effect, but tend to aggravate already dangerous conditions. Kellogg's Bran causes neither discomfort nor irritation and its action is absolutely positive. Bran sweeps and cleanses and purifies! Its work is wonderful! Physicians endorse the use of Kellogg's Bran for constipation because it relieves constipation, naturally. Eat Bran regularly—at least two tablespoonsful daily; in chronic cases with each meal—as a cereal, sprinkled on other cereals, or in many other appetizing ways such as in raisin bread, gump, pancakes, macaroons, etc. Recipes on every box. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled! Start with Kellogg's Bran today. P. S.—Kellogg's Bran, eaten regularly, will clear up a pimply complexion and overcome an obstinate breath.

Curb On Assassins Wanted By Smith

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—Speaking before the Executive Club here today, Harry C. Smith, Republican candidate for the nomination for governor, talked good roads for the farmer and the primary law. He advocated amendments to the primary law that would allow enough of a candidate's record to be placed on the ballot to guide the voter. He also advocated a law to "curb the character assassin" in election campaigns.

Knight Refused Challenge

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—The Cincinnati Board of Elections today refused to grant the request of George H. Bender, campaign manager for Congressman Charles L. Knight, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor to be empowered to name witnesses and challengers for polling places in Hamilton county in the primary next month.

The request was not made in compliance with the law, it was stated. The board directed that Bender's request be referred to the central committee, which could apply to the election judges. If the committee refused to do this then Knight upon written application by himself and four other candidates to the election judges could secure the right to name witnesses and challengers.

LITTLE BOY'S LIFE CRUSHED OUT

Starts Elevator And Is Almost Cut In Two

Death in horrible form came to John Sylvester, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Sylvester, 827 Eleventh street, about six o'clock Thursday evening when his life was crushed out between the floor of an elevator and ceiling of the first floor room at the Stockham Company's storage plant, Eleventh and Chillicothe streets. The lad's body was cut almost in twain, the edge of the elevator floor catching him just above the abdomen, the upper part of his body being in the elevator while the lower part of his body was hanging below the elevator.

Screens from Ira Shafer, five-year-old playmate of the accident victim, brought Mrs. Sylvester, mother of the boy, rushing to the storage plant from her home. She hurried to the place from whence the screams and cries were coming and found the body of her child hanging from the elevator.

Just how the tragedy occurred will never be known exactly for the Shafer lad was so frightened that he cannot tell how the elevator started or how his playmate got caught in the elevator.

The boys had been warned to stay away from the storage plant a number of times. The elevator is in the storage building, which is being revamped, just south of the new ice plant.

The elevator is of one-ton capacity and is controlled by a rope. This control rope is fastened by a pin in the elevator. The safety gate was down and it is thought that the boys started the elevator by reaching through the safety gate and pulling out the pin that held the control rope. Some old steps, just high enough to reach the top of the safety gate were found pushed up to the safety gate when rescuers arrived last evening and it is thought that after the elevator started upwards the Sylvester lad on top of the steps, attempted to crawl onto the floor of the elevator, but that he did not have time to crawl clear before he was caught against the ceiling of the first floor.

The body caused the elevator to wedge there between the two floors, the strain on the motor causing a fuse to be blown. Had not the fuse blown, the body might have been cut in two.

The construction employees working in the storage room quit work at 5:30 o'clock, and they say the lads were not about at that time. According to the mother the boys had been gone away from the house only a short time.

Mrs. Sylvester was followed into the storage room by Millard Fultz of 814 Eleventh street and Tom Senate of 313 Tenth street and they removed the crushed body. It was

Son Of Former Ironton Sheriff Killed While Making An Arrest

IRONTON, O., July 28.—Ironton friends of the family will be grieved to learn of the tragic death of Howard Fisher, son of Mrs. John L. Fisher, at Norfolk, Va., last Saturday. Fisher was a prohibition officer and was shot and killed while trying to arrest liquor law violators last Saturday.

Howard Fisher was a son of former Sheriff John L. Fisher, who has been dead a number of years. The family resided on south Sixth street following Mr. Fisher's term as sheriff and were widely known and highly esteemed here. Howard was just a boy when the family moved to Virginia. Mrs. Fisher, his mother, is a sister of Mrs. D. G. Stewart, of Eighth and Park avenue, and she and Dr. Stewart received the information of the death.

OHIO APPEARS TO HAVE GONE "POLITICALLY CRAZY" THIS YEAR

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Always known as a political state, Ohio appears to have gone "politically crazy" this year. A review of the names of the candidates for nomination for state offices at the primary election on August 8 has convinced some outsiders that nearly everyone living in Ohio must have a relative or two running for office.

Sixty-five candidates, by actual count, have entered the race for the nominations for state offices on the Republican and Democratic tickets. In addition, there are scores and scores of candidates for the nominations for congress and for the county, city and township offices. One Cleveland congressional district reports more than a score of candidates in that district alone for the Republican nomination for Congress.

Exactly thirteen candidates have filed for the nomination for governor—nine Republicans and four Democrats. Four Republicans and two Democrats have declared for United States senator, and eight Republicans and five Democrats have entered the race for the lieutenant-governor nomination. Four Republicans and three Democrats are out for secretary of state, while three Republicans and three Democrats are contesting for state treasurer. Two Republicans and seven Democrats want the nomination for attorney general.

The remainder of the state candidates are for justice of the supreme court, two of whom are to be nominated on each ticket.

Competent, obliging, with experience that covers many years, A. C. Frowine has all the necessary qualifications to make an ideal commissioner, and those who know him are backing him to the limit. Mr. Frowine is a resident of Portsmouth, where he is held in the highest esteem and where he is known by thousands. He has helped build Portsmouth, having been engaged in the general contracting business and having always rendered a good account of himself and his work.

Affable and genial, believing that a smile is always worth while any one having business with Mr. Frowine will always receive just consideration.

A life long Republican, this is the first time he has ever sought preferment at the hands of his party. He will appreciate your support and if nominated and elected will merit your confidence.

Lange Buys Columbus Property

The following from the Columbus Dispatch will be read here with much interest as Mr. Lange was a former resident here:

John Lange, cashier of the Citizens Trust & Savings Bank, and H. E. Richter, manager of the High-Russell branch of the same bank, have acquired an equity in the 90 year lease on 30 feet of the Felbel Bros. Block at North High and Russell streets, according to an announcement by Julius C. Felbel, of the Felbel Bros. Realty Co., business property brokers. The consideration is reported at $1,500 per front foot, making the transaction one of the largest in this section this year.

This property is improved with a three-story brick building, with five storerooms and apartments. This property was sold five years ago by Felbel Bros. to Harry Bayer, who has now resold it to Mr. Lange and Mr. Richter.

Both Mr. Lange and Mr. Richter have expressed themselves agreeably surprised with the remarkable development of this north side district and stated that this purchase was made for investment purposes.

Guests Royally Entertained At Camp Applejack By Messrs. Appel And Hood

CAMP APPLEJACK, July 28.—Three Portsmouth citizens, one a preacher, another a newspaperman, and the other an ice cream manufacturer, were visitors at the above camp Wednesday evening, and enjoyed a big fish fry, served by John Slade at the behest of the camp proprietors, Prof. Frank Appel and "Jack" Hood. Judging from the way the above trio made the fish disappear they had had nothing to eat since Heck was a pup. Much alarm is still manifested by the camp attaches as to the condition of the preacher, who was enough to admit he had made a perfect show of himself, but couldn't help it because he never before knew what real Ohio cooking amounted to. He got away with eleven slices of a big channel cat and was sorry he had no room for more.

The trio may know something about their respective professions—in fact, they are considered pretty fair successes—but they are sadly deficient when it comes to the fishing art. They "ran" four long trot lines, caught two big gars and several suckers. The gars were hooked side by side and No. 1 was as long as the moral law. He was suitably tagged—all signed out for the occasion. A medal was hanging around his yard-long neck, suitably inscribed to mark the occasion. The newspaper man who had hold of the line let out a war whoop when he "felt" the big creature pull and tug and yelled for the dip-net. He was scooped in all right, and the ice cream man tried his best to leap over the side of the joint boat when the creature was landed. He was prevented by the preacher who wanted to lead in prayer, he doubtless thinking the devil of the deep had come up to claim his victims. The lines had been especially prepared with the "big fish" before the guests arrived. The trio enjoyed their stay immensely, and invited themselves back again.

Meeting Of Ko. K. Klub Tonight

The Ko. K. Klub will hold a meeting this evening in the American Legion Club rooms in the Royal Savings Building, starting at 7:30.

The membership has made a strong effort to have every man who served with the company to be out, and it is hoped to complete the organization of the club tonight. Any ex-service men who were with Company K and who were not seen by the membership committee are urged to attend and get in line. The club is for the purpose of keeping the men who served together, in close touch with each other and to promote good fellowship in sports and entertainment.

New Bus To Chillicothe

A bus, similar to the sight-seeing buses used in the large cities, has been added to the Portsmouth-Chillicothe service which the Scioto Valley Motor bus company maintains. The new machine has four rows of seats and holds eleven occupants. Being of the sight-seeing type, it will not be out of place on the Portsmouth-Chillicothe route which is one of the prettiest stretches in the county.

The demand for earlier bus service caused the firm to place the new machine in service and sometime in August another bus similar to the one now added, will be put into use. A two hour schedule is maintained between the two points.

Delta Camp Accepts 10

Delta Camp Royal Neighbors accepted ten candidates at their meeting last night after disposing of several business items. The candidates which were acted upon favorably were: Mrs. Mary Martin, Catherine Weaver, Mae Gaudin, Mrs. Ida Brinker, Mrs. Grace Scammyhorn, Stella Petty, Mrs. Merle Duncan, Mrs. Polly Sexton, Mrs. Effie Bracke and Mrs. Juliet Farmer.

Game At North Moreland
The Outlaws of Germany Hollow will play the North Moreland Stars at the North Moreland diamond next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Stearns and Russell Schwanberger will form the battery for the Outlaws while Earl Schwanberger and Vickers will take similar positions with the North Morelands.

Were Disappointed
There was much gnashing of teeth and tearing of hair by the local clerks in a local drug store when they learned that the circus was not coming to town as they had been promised free tickets.

California's Tragedies

Enough good printers' ink and newspaper space has been wasted on the Hollywood tragedies of Arbuckle and Taylor to put across a national advertising campaign for something useful and beneficial to the people as a nation.

There is satisfaction in knowing, however, that they are quite far away and we do not get the full effect. We are in about the same position in respect to the California tragedies as the catalog house to its customers. One catalog house man said he did not care how much his customers kicked on the quality or fitting of the shoes he sold them as long as they were far enough away that he didn't get the full force, and he only expected to sell a customer one pair anyhow.

I would like to sell you one pair but with the idea that they are going to fit, please and wear so well that they will bring you back again, and believe me if you men want a quiet tip get your feet into that better kind of palm beach oxfords for these hot days,—comfort and service in every pair. A trial proves the worth.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

The American girl rarely concerns herself much about her dowry, but in almost every other country this is an important consideration.

In India it is customary to give the girls of their family their fortunes in jewels, since they cannot hold property. Their wealth is calculated by the magnificence of their precious stones.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Feuzel, former well known residents of Scottdale, will be interested to learn that they have moved from their home near Jacksonville, Florida and will spend several weeks with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. W. E. Cook, 2014 Grandview avenue, has as her guests Mrs. N. L. Stricklen and Miss Anna Boss, both of Ironton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hansen, 1110 Second street, are leaving next week for Columbus where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurrell, 1120 Eighth street, announce the birth of a son at their home Tuesday.

Twenty-nine young women on the first shift of operators of the Portsmouth Telephone office forgot their daily formula "Number, please," for a few hours yesterday afternoon and evening, and enjoyed a pleasant outing at the Micklethwait camp along the Scioto river.

The trip to the camp was made in several of the company's trucks and private machines. Games, contests and other forms of outdoor diversion were enjoyed, and at 6 o'clock an appetizing picnic supper was spread. Miss Bertha Gempferline, supervisor, was hostess, while the "cats" were furnished by Manager Harvey M. Allen of the telephone office.

Later the operators who are working the second and third shifts will enjoy their outings.

Mrs. Charles Keri of Cincinnati and niece, Miss Kathleen Snyder, of Powellsville, Ohio, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Murray, 1425 Offshore street.

Division B of the First Baptist Aid Society met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Robert Gillespie, 1013 Eighth street. After the regular business session the afternoon was spent in social chat and later the hostess served delicious light refreshments.

The members present were Mesdames Truss Lynn, James Dawson, E. W. Gower, Blanchard, Anderson and J. W. Burton. There were two guests, Misses Darius Matthews and Isabelle Jones of Oak Hill.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Gibbons of 1407 Sixth street, August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fix and son Billy, who have been visiting Mr. Fix's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Cooper of 2105 Robinson avenue, have returned to their home in Winston Salem, N. C.

Mrs. J. W. Daehler and daughter, Anna Margaret, of Ninth and Offshore streets, are visiting at Mrs. Daehler's old home in Union City, Indiana.

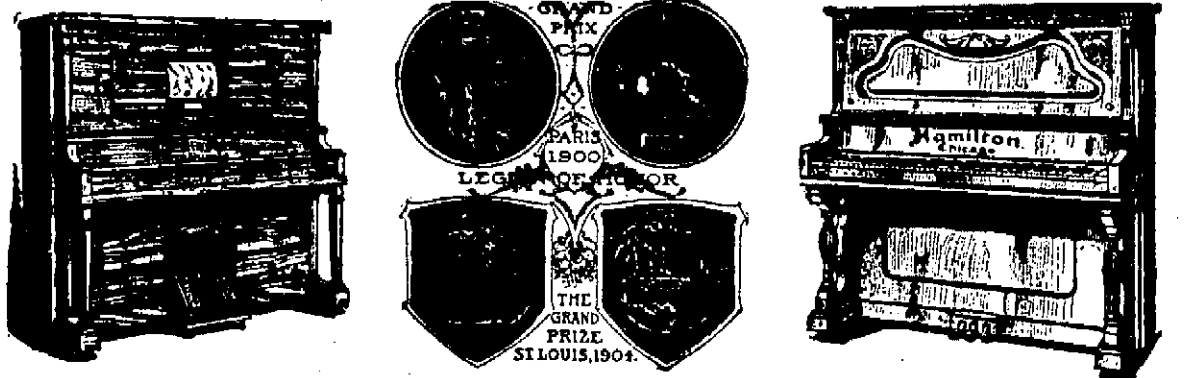

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Thomas and son, Richardson, of 1003 Eighth street, will leave the first of next week for a ten days' motor trip to Cleveland and Niagara Falls.

"It is Safe to Buy at Baldwin's."

Consider This:

A Piano or Player Piano is the most valuable piece of furniture in the average home. It represents the largest single furniture investment and is seldom duplicated. It should last a lifetime, but if the owner is in any way dissatisfied with it he usually makes the best of it. Not many of us feel like throwing a piano or player-piano away—or even selling it at a loss—and replacing it with a new one. And yet, many purchasers have done it, despite the expense of their disappointment in not finding their first instrument all that it should be.

The best way—the wisest and safest way—is to buy a

Baldwin Piano Or Player Piano

And then you are fully protected against disappointment and loss. There is practically no chance of your making a mistake. The Great House of Baldwin stands behind every instrument sold by them and you take no risk whatever. Baldwin Pianos or Player-Pianos cost no more than other makes, and can be purchased on very liberal terms. We are now making a

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I went with a fellow for many years and have just found out he tells lies and is deceitful. We had a disagreement and he is now keeping company with a girl of whom he talked to me very disrespectfully. Do you think it would be advisable for me to tell this girl or just let the matter drop? I feel that he is now saying things about me to her.

ADVISE
You should have had judgment enough to know that when a man talks in this way about a girl he is not worthy of your company. Never be a gossip or tale carrier and try to rejoice that you found out what sort of character this man had, even though it took you many years to do so.

Dear Dolly—I ordered a pattern out of Friday night's Times and sent the money and postage and have never heard from it. As I know the pattern I would like to know whom to write to about it.

THANK YOU
The pattern will be sent to you in a week or ten days by the firm which issues them.

Dear Dolly—Please print the address of some employment bureau in Cincinnati. A READER Employment Bureau, Cincinnati, Ohio.

I have the address of a lady who would like to have quilt pieces sent to her.

Dear Miss Wise: I have a pink velvet dress which has been washed in gasoline to be cleaned several times. It has a dingy appearance and could you tell me a way to pretty or a blue or any dark color.

READER
If you do not want to dye the dress yourself send it to a dry cleaner. As to the colors a deep rose would be pretty or a blue or any dark color.

Dear Dolly—Did the Atlantic-Pacific Highway Commissioners that held their meeting to decide the route of the new highway through West Virginia ever decide on the route through that state? I never noticed such a decision in The Daily Times and would thank you for any information.

A READER
At the meeting held June 20 at White Sulphur Springs no special route was decided upon.

Dear Dolly—Will you please tell me what people put in ice cream to make it freeze hard, and give me a rich recipe for making ice cream.

AN ICE CREAM MAKER
The salt that is placed on the ice makes the ice cream freeze—perhaps. Ice Cream—1 gallon fresh milk, 4 eggs well beaten, 2 pounds sugar and 1 tablespoonful of extract. Mix together, beat well, let stand half an hour. Beat again, pour into freezer and freeze. Please cut this out and paste it in your cook book because I do not like to take up space by printing an ice cream recipe more than five times more.

ENTERPRISE

"Well, Mother, you certainly have spread yourself—this is some Sunday supper! But wasn't it an awful bother?"

"Not a bit, John! It's fun to bake with Valier's Enterprise Flour—every thing always turns out so well!"

Enterprise Flour makes baking easier

THERE is no worry in a sack of Valier's Enterprise Flour—you can bake with it and be sure that your baking will turn out right. Only the finest, strong-gluten hard wheat goes into Enterprise Flour. Such wheat costs much more than ordinary wheat. But fine wheat is necessary to mill fine flour. We prefer to ask a little more for Enterprise and be sure of its high quality.

P. S. Valier's Enterprise Flour has concentrated strength. Eight or even ten cups of Enterprise go as far as nine of ordinary flour. Use less flour when you bake with Enterprise.

Adventures Of The Twins
BY OLIVE ROBERTS DANTON

GADDDY GOBBLE-TURKEY was asleep under a fence.

All day long he'd wandered up and down the wheat fields and oat fields and all sorts of fields, stuffing out his sides and his tummy until he looked like a large brown watermelon with two legs and a head.

So now in the cool shade of the wood-pile and right under a fence, he was dreaming. And like all folks who eat too much just before they go to sleep, he was having a nightmare.

He dreamed he had turned into a guinea-fowl with little white dots all over him.

Gaddy didn't like guinea-fowl. He hated them.

"Every time I try to go to sleep they start to screech like someone getting a tooth pulled!" he complained to the other barnyarders. And everybody agreed with him.

Well, Gaddy went on dreaming and dreaming, or rather nightmaring and nightmaring.

Farmer Smith was white-washing the fence nearby.

By and by he came to the place where Gaddy Gobble-Turkey was asleep, but he didn't see him.

Splash, sprinkle, splash went the white-wash, right through the fence and on Gaddy's brown feathers.

After while Gaddy woke up.

"Oh, what an awful dream I've had!" he said.

Suddenly he saw his back, looking like a piece of brown dotted Swiss.

"Oh! Oh!" he shrieked, straking off to Dr. Snuffles' house. "My dream came true. Help!"

But Dr. Snuffles, the farlyman doctor, saw the trouble at once.

"Nancy and Nick, take this young gentleman to the creek and wash him." was all he said.

But what do you think? He charged Gaddy a dollar!

WAVERLY
While going down Wintergreen hill Wednesday night enroute from Waverly to Idaho a Dahl-Campbell Packard truck left the road and plunged down a steep embankment, resulting in the truck being badly damaged. The driver, Homer Smith, escaped serious injury, suffering merely a sprained shoulder. A medium sized tree was broken off and pulled up by the roots by the truck's wild plunge. Luckily the tree caught under the front of the truck helping to stop it. Smith stated that the brakes on the car were worn out completely and that he was unable to hold the car on the hill; also that the truck was not steering right. When about half way down the hill, which is long and winding, the car was going at a high rate of speed, the wheels swerved to the right and plunged over the embankment.

The Fair department store was burglarized Tuesday night, clothing to the value of about $75 being carried off. The principal things missing were three suits of clothes, two pair of pants and two suit cases. On Thursday morning William "Wacker" Yeager, and a Phillips boy were brought down from Chillicothe and lodged in the county jail. Some socks, caps and hose supporters were found in their possession and identified as part of the stock of the Fair clothing department. The suit cases and suits have not been found and the two boys stoutly deny any connection with the theft. However, William Yeager was twice convicted of breaking in the Fair and Sheriff McElroy believes he has the guilty ones in the jail.

PYORRHEA SUFFERERS! You Can Have Firm Teeth and Healthy Gums

Amazing Discovery that Quickly Puts an End to Pyorrhea, Rigg's Disease, Soft, Sore, Spongy and Bleeding Gums

Pyorrhea is caused by a germ and it is so powerful and persistent a germ that both dentists and doctors have for years been baffled in their attempts to find a remedy that would destroy both the germs and their poisonous toxins.

Pyorrhea or Rigg's disease means loose teeth, sore, soft and bleeding gums and every sufferer will be glad to know that at last a Rochester N. Y. dentist has found a cure. This preparation which is called MOVA DENTAL CREAM can now be obtained at all first class drug stores and so speedily does it destroy the germs, tighten up the loose teeth and stop the progress of this dread disease that dentists are astounded.

MOVA DENTAL CREAM is no ordinary tooth paste. It is a carefully balanced combination of high grade antiseptics and germicides powerful enough to combat and destroy the germs of pyorrhea yet pleasant and easy to use. Anyone can make their teeth and gums strong and healthy right at home. It is very concentrated and a regular tube will show results in a few days. Druggists everywhere have been authorized to guarantee that a regular tube will show results or money back. Fisher & Streich can supply you.

Allege Warnock Tanked Up And Then Indulged In Gun Play; Fined $100

For gun-toting and intoxication, Wesley Warnock of North Moreland, was fined $100 and costs by Squire Morgan, Thursday.

It was claimed that Warnock after gilling up on "moon" Wednesday night in the vicinity of his home had made a gun-play, threatening some of his neighbors, which resulted in a complaint to county officers, who apprehended the accused yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Tom Brown, a neighbor, deputed that Warnock threatened her or that she made the complaint to the officers.

Warnock paid up and was released from custody.

Sewer Plans Have Been Filed; Bond Issue Proposed

Plans for the proposed Lawson Run and Soloto Trail sewers prepared by a Chicago firm of sanitary experts have been filed with the State Department of Health for approval. Mayor Gableman announces, and the question of authorizing a bond issue to provide funds to carry out the improvements may come up for the consideration of council at its regular meeting next week.

The program of sewer improvement as recommended by the experts as a result of their survey of the city recently completed contemplate an expenditure of approximately $300,000.

The mayor said that it was not planned to carry the project out all at one time, but to go at the improvements gradually so as to prevent the burden of taxes becoming too great. Council has indicated a desire that Lawson Run sewer be first in the construction program.

AUTOMOBILE USED AS INCUBATOR

It has been thought that a Ford car had been put to about every available use "under the sun," but it remained for the Gloucester garage employees to discover a new use today. Last Saturday they took in trade a Ford touring car which had been the property of J. H. Edey of Lucasville. When they started to overhaul it this morning they found that a couple of enterprising birds had been using the car as a home and incubator. A nest was found under the front seat in which the remnants of shells gave conclusive evidence that youngsters had been hatched. Investigation showed that access to the nest was through an opening from the front seat, a board there having been broken out in some manner. It is thought that the car has been standing in a barn and that the birds seized upon it as a good place for a home.

Lay Cornerstone

For A New Church

The cornerstone for the new First Christian church at Catlettsburg has been laid.

The chief speaker at the services was Rev. D. W. Scott of Huntington. He was assisted by the pastor of the Catlettsburg church, Rev. D. H. Matherly and Rev. H. B. Smith of Ashland. The Masonic fraternity took part in the exercises also.

The new church is to be on the corner of Lock avenue and Clay street, and is to be constructed of tapestry brick. The seating capacity will be 300 with a number of classrooms.

The TATTOOED ARM

Isabel Ostrander Own MSA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

What horrible and mysterious power was forcing the three Drake brothers.

HOBART, Wall Street broker, ROGER, eminent scientist, and ANDREW, recently returned from Australia, to place themselves in ridiculous situations? Some power had forced Hobart to deliver a mock address in the public square.

Roger to burlesque a scientific address and Andrew to sit on the parlor floor and play with toys. The three appear terror-stricken and without their knowledge.

PATRICIA DRAKE, daughter of Hobart, secures OWEN MILES, detective sergeant, and his colleague, SCOTTIE MCCREARY, to investigate. Miles is employed as a houseman, and Scottie as a garage. Following a series of mysterious events, Patricia suddenly disappears—an event which Miles cannot understand as he and Patricia were in each other's confidence. Possibly the attempt of her spinster aunt, MISS JERUSA DRAKE, to break up a love affair with RICHARD KEMP, has been the cause. Miles is suddenly summoned by Hobart Drake.

(Continued From Our Last Issue) "Good! Take a train around seven tonight and I'll phone when your cue comes," Miles attended to the check and they rose. It was almost dinner time when he reached Brooklyn but instead of returning at once to the Drakes' he pulled a call at a neat, old-fashioned cottage nearer the village. Carter and Pierre were hurrying about the kitchen busied with the serving of dinner and as he passed the servants' dining room Scottie beckoned imperiously, but Miles waved an emphatic dissent and hurried up the back stairs. At the first landing he came upon Hilly.

"Mr. Roger's condition hasn't changed since last night?" "No, an' I don't know's it'll be any harm if I do leave him," she shivered. "I'll be right back before the family leave the table."

She scurried off, and Miles softly entered the sick room, and took the chair beside the bed. He leaned over and spoke gently. "Mr. Drake! You can hear me?"

The eye which had turned, eagerly toward him at his first word closed swiftly, gratefully and then opened wide.

"I meant what I said yesterday. The past is buried and must not be resurrected, but there is one who must be silent, the one whose name you tried to tell your brother yesterday. I knew—I guessed—but I must have your assurance that I am right. The man you fear, the man who can bring ruin and worse upon you all—is this he?"

Reading more closely over the prostrate form he breathed a name. There was a pregnant pause while Roger Drake's eye seemed to dilate. Then, unavertingly, inexorably, the lids closed.

CHAPTER XVII
AN, but I've news for you!" Scottie exclaimed when Miles came down stairs.

"Dick Kemp has found what's been under very noses. Do you mind when Rip told us of meeting two men in the garden. Last night they came again and Dick frightened them away but not before he'd discovered the spot they were after. We'll beat them to it tonight but how we're to get rid of the lad?"

"I'll find a way," Miles responded briefly. "It's only the last link in the chain, anyway, but it will be best for him and his little bride to be far from this house later tonight."

"When young Dick meets you tell him to pack his grip and wait with his rumpshot in the back road till Patricia joins him."

Miles was passing through the hall when Andrew Drake emerged from the library fuming with exasperation. "You found that pettyfogging Wells?" he explained to Miles Drake. "He's coming down on the ten o'clock train tonight and insists that I meet him at the station—Wants a private talk."

"Sh-h!" Miss Drake warned and vanished up the stairs. Andrew presumably following.

As Miles turned Patricia appeared in the door of the music room. "I heard!" she whispered. "Oh, Sergeant, why is Mr. Wells coming?"

and where have you been all day? When is all this dreadful suspense going to end?"

"Tonight, for you, my dear young lady," the detective replied. "I want you to go away again now, tonight. Mr. Kemp will be waiting for you on the back road in his car in an hour and you must take your traveling case and slip out and join him. He will keep in touch with me and when you come back in a few days it will be to find that all the trouble has passed."

She held both her hands out to him impulsively. "Oh! I have always had faith in you even when I was living a nightmare. You have found the terrible old woman who tried to have me abducted and the man with the tattooed arm?"

"He will never cross your path again," Miles replied evasively. "One thing more; not only was your own sanity never in question, but that of your people also."

It was midnight when Miles and Scottie, equipped with shotguns, set to work with a will and soon had a hole waist deep where the floor of the summer house had been.

"I've struck something, lad," Scottie announced in an unconsciously lowered voice.

Miles leaped down into the excavation beside him and felt about with his hands.

"Mechanical," Scottie exclaimed. "Rusted and broken as though it had been crushed with a sledge-hammer!"

"Our friends hoped it would be in better condition. I think," Miles responded. Can you guess what it is?" though I own I've had that in mind since you took the counterfeit bill from me," Scottie shook his head slowly. "If I had a chance to try to assemble it, how?"

"You're close enough to the truth, old man," Miles wedged down the lid once more and began heaping the loose dirt back upon it. Put the boards back over the hole as well as you can and follow me!"

Scottie obeyed and the two walked to the road where a machine had halted. With its three grimly business-like occupants the briefest of greetings were exchanged.

"You understand, boys, that you're on a confidential case, and Scottie is here just by accident?" Miles spoke with authority but there was a note of uncontrollable cation in his tones.

"Sure, we understand all right, Sergeant," the burlier of the trio replied with immense respect. We're all set and waiting for orders."

"All right, Farrell; you and Marks come with me. I'm going to post you indoors and then get one of the neighbors to join us whom I shall want as a witness. Scottie, jump in and let Barker drive you down to the Mansion House where I want you to send word up to a Mrs. Higgins that you've come to bring her back here. While she is getting ready, call up 130 Brooklyn and insist on speaking to the lady of the house; she, too, will be prepared for your call. Tell her Miss Drake is ill and has sent for her. She will use a conversation of her own to reach her, but Mrs. Higgins will return with you and Barker, and see that you make it snappy."

CHAPTER XVIII
JOHN WELLS was still fully dressed when Miles knocked upon the door of the guest room. After a brief colloquy he descended to the library where he found Estee Grayle.

"My dear sir! He extended a cordial hand to the bewildered naturalist. "This is an unpardonable hour at which to have disturbed you but you are our poor Rogers' closest friend."

"I do want you, Andrew, and you too, Hilly," The attorney's tones were low. "If you will wait until your sister joins us?"

"Patricia!" The cry came from the stairs and Miss Drake tottered into the room and fell into the nearest chair. "She is gone again! Why is what's up now?"

THE MAN FROM LOST RIVER

BY KATHARINE NEWLIN BURT DIRECTED BY FRANK LLOYD A GOLDWYN PICTURE

The great northwest woods are really the central influence in the latest Goldwyn picture, "The Man From Lost River," which was presented at the Eastland Theatre last night. The action of Katharine Newlin Burt's photoplay takes place in a lumber camp where the men lead a hard life close to nature. The softening influence of women is absent though in the camp dwells an orphan girl, the pride of the men. Into this group comes a sophisticated Easterner who falls in love with the girl and marries. The dramatic conflict entwines the camp foreman, who has silently adored the girl all the while; and it is the unworthiness of her husband in a time of crisis that both removes him from the scene and shows the girl the girl the worth of a noble man's love.

One of the marvellous scenes in this Frank Lloyd production shows the lumberjacks in the act of felling a giant tree. The picture was taken on Lake Huntington. In the Sierras, for outdoor scenic beauty and thrilling dramatic action, "The Man From Lost River" is one of the most effective pictures that Goldwyn has made this year.

Tea is gathered from the plant four times a year.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, July 28.—Opening prices on the New York stock exchange today were firm to strong, reflecting favorable overnight developments in the coal and rail strike situations. Gains ranging from fractions to nearly 2½ points were scored by virtually all active issues. Bethlehem and Lackawanna Steels, negotiations for the merger of which now are pending, furnished the only exceptions to the general advance, each dropping ¾ point, presumably on the announcement that Bethlehem had failed to carry its dividend requirement for the last quarter. Stronger features among the rails included Baltimore and Ohio, which touched 85½, up ½, and a new high for the year, and Northern Pacific, which gained a large fraction. Other large gains were recorded by Baldwin Locomotive and Crucible, which were up 2½ and 1½ points respectively. Profit taking caused moderate reactions in some of the leaders during the first hour, but the general trend continued upward. The demand centered in rails, oils and steels, which showed gains of 1 to 3½ points. Central Railroad of New Jersey and Norfolk and Western mirrored the more hopeful conditions in the strike situation. Standard Oil of California, California Petroleum and Mexican Petroleum were substantially better, but further selling was observed in Mexican Seaboard common.

and certificates. Crucible again led the steels and equipments moved to higher ground under lead of American and Baldwin Locomotives and General Electric. Tobacco was strongest of the specialties. The better tone of today's stock market on more active and broader dealings resulted from short covering prompted by increased probabilities of an early settlement of nation-wide labor troubles. Sales approximated 750,000 shares. The closing was easy.

Chicago Grain and Provision
CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, July 28.—Wheat averaged a little lower in price during the early dealings, although nearness of a settlement of rail and coal strikes was said to have been largely discounted heretofore. In some quarters this morning it was contended that a settlement would give such an impetus to general business that the effect would really be to help lift grain values. On the other hand, the foreign markets today were unexpectedly weak and export inquiry was less than has recently been the rule. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to ½c lower, with September 1.07½ to 1.08 and December 1.09½ to 1.10½, was followed by a slight rally and then by new declines.

Corn and oats were firm, influenced by a falling off in receipts of corn. After opening, unchanged to ½c higher, September 62½ to 62½, the corn market scored a slight general advance. Oats started unchanged to a shade higher, September 34½ to 34½, and later rose all around.

Higher quotations on hogs led to an upturn in the provision market. Close firm, same as yesterday's finish to 1½ higher, Sept. 63½.

THE WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, July 28.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

There is a better tone in the wool market as a result of the senate tariff vote, although wool merchants are inclined to deplore the passage of the proposed wool tariff as unfortunate and bound to bring a reaction. Wool prices are very firm in this market for all wools out of bond while the foreign markets are firm. Liverpool East India auctions having recovered on the last day some of its earlier weakness. The demand for wools in the goods market has been fairly satisfactory and the American Woolen Co. has withdrawn the production of nine mills from the market. Worsted, however, do not seem to be meeting with so much favor. Little is reported from the west that is new. Mohair is hardly changed with de-

Must Cut Weeds On Your Property

In a statement issued Friday Service Director William Gergens points out that a state law requires all property owners to cut weeds on their premises and in this connection said that he had received many complaints of property owners in this city failing to comply with the law. Ignoring of this law by so many caused the service director to issue a warning that unless the property owners get busy at once and comply with the statutes by removing weeds he will be forced to start prosecutions in Municipal court.

OPPOSED TO UNDERWOOD BILL

WASHINGTON, July 28—Opposition to the Underwood bill for creation of an all-American commission for the settlement of American claims against Germany and Austria was said to have been expressed by Secretary Hughes in a communication to the senate judiciary committee.

Mr. Hughes was said to believe that in the adjudication of German claims, the German government at least was entitled to be represented on the commission.

Secretary Hughes was said to favor a mixed commission, being negotiated for under a new treaty with Germany which was reported to be nearing completion. Senator Underwood gave notice yesterday at hearings on his bill that such a treaty would cause great delay and even might never be ratified.

River News

The Ohio river registered a pool stage of 13.7 feet at the local wharfbout this afternoon.

The steamer, Betsy Ann passed up for Pittsburg at 10 o'clock this morning and the Steamer Chris Green came down at 10:30 on the way to Cincinnati. The Tacoma passed down for Cincinnati at 2:30 and the General Wood will be down for the Queen City at 6:00 o'clock.

Rain was reported at only one station on the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cincinnati. The local fall was .27 inch.

Amendments Approved

WASHINGTON, July 28—Amendments to the administration tariff bill by Senator Leacock, Republican, Wisconsin, designed to remove at least part of what he characterized as "concealed protection" for manufacturers of woolen cloth, were approved today by the senate after they had been accepted by Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, in charge of the bill for the finance committee majority.

The amendments would apply only to cloths bearing the full wool compensatory rate of 45 cents a pound. Senator Leacock sought to have it apply to women's dress goods carrying a compensatory duty of 40 cents a pound, but the senate refused by a vote of 33 to 33.

Dempsey training on the road at Saranac Lake, N. Y., getting his "wind" for his coming fight with Villa or Willard. That pint-sized fellow is Jack's new boss, "No Kidding". He's Jerry Luvadas, who puts Jack through his training paces. On the right is Jack Renault, Dempsey's sparring partner.

Tries To Light Cigarette; Machine Is Wrecked; Occupants In Hospital

A desire for a cigarette was the cause of an accident which occurred on the Galena pike, three miles from this city, shortly before noon Friday, when a Ford automobile driven by Vern Christian and also occupied by Charles W. Brown, plunged off the roadway and crashed into a telephone pole.

Both young men who live at Rarden were injured, Christian being crushed about the chest and Brown was cut about the face, arms and head by glass from the broken windshield. Brown suffered greatly from the shock. Both were brought to Schurman hospital where it was stated this afternoon that their condition was not regarded as serious. The accident happened when Christian attempted to light a cigarette, it was said. The young men had been to Portsmouth and were returning home. The machine was considerably damaged.

John P. Yancey Going To Birmingham

John P. Yancey, local sales agent for the National Cash Register company for the past three years, has received a handsome promotion from the company and has been placed in charge of the sales of the Birmingham, Alabama, office, the second largest National Cash Register office in the South. He will leave Monday with his family and will be accompanied by C. W. Hopkins, the local office manager who will fill the same capacity in Mr. Yancey's new office. In his three years as sales agent in the local office Mr. Yancey has made hosts of friends who will be surprised and sorry to hear of his departure from the city. Birmingham is a city of 178,000 population and is situated near Atlanta, Georgia where Mr. Yancey was born and so he will be among old friends in his new move.

He hopes to dispose of his residence at 1401 Kinney's Lane and his summer camp on Brush Creek before leaving.

Had No Home Brew, Says Mr. Distel

Strenuous denial is made by Len Distel that any "Home Brew" was seized at his place of business in the Washington Hotel. He further says that he has never had any home brew at his place. According to Mr. Distel the officers who raided his place seized 27 bottles of XL near beer and some Ambrosia taken from a keg, both products being made by the Feehr Brewing Co., of Louisville, Ky., and two bottles of Budweiser, made by Anheuser-Busch, of St. Louis.

Lowell Harness House Destroyed

Fire, which originated from sparks from the kitchen stove alighting on the shingle roof, entirely destroyed the home of Lowell Harness at Dever's Run, Rush township, near Lucasville, about six o'clock Thursday afternoon. The blaze had gained considerable headway when discovered and, as there was none of the family at home but Mrs. Harness and children they were unable to successfully to combat the flames with the result that the building and its contents were soon a mass of ruins. The house, a two story frame, is a total loss together with the household effects and furniture, and no insurance was carried, it is said. Mr. Harness is a well known school teacher and he is clerk of Rush township and a member of the county board of election.

SOCIETY

The W. W. J. Club was entertained yesterday at the home of Mrs. Joe Fussencker of 220 Jefferson street, with a card party. Mrs. Max Johnson won the top score and favor and Mrs. Edward McNamara was given the consolation prize. During the afternoon the hostess served a delicious ice course to the following:

Mesdames Charles Albrecht, Cecil Braumer, Clarence Vest, Gus Fussencker, Max Johnson, Lester Jones, Edward Zeek, William Vincent, Edward McNamara, Leo Weber, George Gildea, and a guest, Mrs. Harry Grice.

The next meeting will be held August 10, at the home of Mrs. Gus Fussencker, 632 Eighth street.

Mrs. Lucy Guthrie of 902 Fourth street is the appreciative recipient of many beautiful cut and potted flowers given her yesterday in remembrance of her birthday anniversary from her friends and neighbors.

The following has been received from Rev. and Mrs. H. Stewart Tillis who with their children Marjorie and Gordon and Miss Lois Burton are enjoying a motor trip through the West.

"We are now in St. Anthony, Idaho, on our way to Salt Lake City. We left the Park this A. M. and camped near the Great Falls and Grand Canyon of the Yellow Stone, which was a beautiful sight for the colors in the canyon are beyond description. We then passed over the side of Mt. Washburn and flowers are blooming everywhere—all kinds and colors. We visited Tower Falls, Mammoth Hot Springs, and went through Silver Gate and Golden Gate over a very steep narrow pass, then on to Norris Geyser Basin. A storm came up on the way and it nearly snowed. It was so cold that we had to bank up the tent last night to keep out the cold. There is snow on the mountain tops as we drive along. The Geysers were great, especially Old Faithful. We have traveled in Wyoming, Montana and Idaho today. This July 24 is a great Mormon holiday. Mormons entered Utah July 24."

Little Miss Catherine Taggart of Cincinnati is spending the week with her grandmother, Mrs. Nellie Council of Fourth street.

Miss Carol Hagerman of Fresno, California, arrived last evening from New York to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hagerman of 1230 Second street. She will return to New York Monday to buy millinery supplies for the Wonder Millinery Shop at Fresno, which she represents.

Word has been received from Dr. and Mrs. Carl H. Graf, of Boulder, Colo., announcing the birth of a daughter on Wednesday, July 26. She has been named Barbara, and she is the second daughter of the household.

Miss Mabel Moritz and R. A. Thompson are spending the week-end with Misses Bessie and Myrtle Hoy, of Columbus.

Miss Margaret Crawford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Crawford of 1311 Ninth street is home for her summer vacation from the Iowa State School at Ames, Iowa. Miss Crawford who was teaching chemistry in the State School also took a course in science and just recently graduated receiving her M. S. degree. Two years ago she received her A. B. degree at Oxford. The Ames school has the largest home economics department in the country.

Misses Minnie and Eva Potts of South Webster, who have been guests for this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prosch of 1245 Seventeenth street, will leave tomorrow for Wheelersburg, where they will be the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Potts, before returning home.

BOOSTING NEW BOSTON CHAUTAUQUA

Miss Jessie Patterson, Junior leader for the Radcliffe Chautauqua which is to be in New Boston for five days beginning Monday, is in New Boston as an advance agent. She has worked up an interest among the children at the playgrounds and has been furnishing them several free entertainments.

Tonight there will be a Bonster's parade which will start from the Methodist church and end up at the Casino where at 8 o'clock this evening a free program will be given to give the people of New Boston some idea of what sort of a program will be presented for the five days of the Chautauqua.

OAK HILL, O., July 28—At 11:30 o'clock, Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. William Sordal pastor of the Presbyterian church of Middleport, Ohio performed the ceremony uniting in marriage

Miss Eunice Jervis, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jervis of Gomer, Ohio, to Mr. John Fugh Jones, son of Mr. John T. Jones of Columbus and pastor of the local Welsh Presbyterian Circuit for the past three years. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other points. They will return to Thurman, O., the latter part of next week where they will remain for two Sundays when Rev. Jones' resignation as pastor of the Welsh Circuit churches of Thurman, Moria, Peunak, Sardis, Zor and Bethel becomes effective.

They will make their future home in Cincinnati where Mr. Jones will enter Lane Seminary in September.

A merry crowd of young folk enjoyed the pleasures afforded at Oak Hill camp near Wheelersburg yesterday afternoon and evening. After a pleasant afternoon of swimming a delicious picnic supper was served to Misses Agnes Cassidy, Marguerite Schroeder, Tillie Schroeder, Ella Davis, Lucille Davis, Annette Brown, Margaret Daniels and cousin, Jean Brennan of New York. Hortense Williams, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams and David Williams.

Miss Marcella Kallenbach, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prosch of 1245 Seventeenth street, has returned to her home in South Webster.

Mrs. Fred Warner, Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Louis Newman and Mrs. W. A. Kirkendall, Lloyd Warner and Anna Newman, of Robinson near McConnell avenue enjoyed Thursday at the Kirkendall summer home a mile east of Wheelersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bragg of 1066 Gallia street and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hart, 1054 1-2 Eleventh street, motored to Waverly Tuesday and spent part of the week with Mrs. H. A. Osborn of Forest Heights and with Mrs. Bragg's mother, Mrs. Sydney Hart, who is visiting there.

Miss Ruth Crawford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Crawford of 1311 Ninth street, is spending a two weeks' vacation with relatives in Adams county.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Rosenthal and son Arthur motored to Columbus Thursday and while there made plans for Arthur to enter Ohio State University this next term. Young Rosenthal graduated from P. H. S. last June.

Girls' And Women's Doubles In Tennis Are To Be Started Soon

The Girls' Tennis Tournament in Doubles will start the middle of next week. It is city wide and any girls 17 years old, and under, will be eligible to enter. The games will probably be played in the morning, and those of the Women's Doubles, over 17 years, will be played at 5:30 p. m. Entries for the Girls' Doubles are coming in very slowly. Those intending to enter should send their names to Miss Pearl Eichelberger or

Miss Florence Peterson, vice-presidents of the Tennis Association, or call up Phone 1715. Entries will close on Monday night, and the schedule will be published in Tuesday evening's paper. All the teams entered will be scheduled to play on Wednesday morning, but which team each is to meet will not be announced till the schedule appears in Tuesday evening's paper. The Girls' Tournament will be scheduled on the same basis as the Boys' and Men's Tournaments. The teams will be divided into groups of four or six teams each, and each team will play every other team in its group. In this way, even the poorest team will play at least 5 games before being eliminated. At the end the winners of the various groups will play for the city championship—and somebody is sure to win it.

Daniel Webster Williams, G. O. P. Candidate, To Be Here Tonight

Hon. Daniel Webster Williams, of Jackson, Republican candidate for governor of Ohio, wired The Times Friday that he would be in Portsmouth this evening and would spend the night here. Mr. Williams would be pleased to meet Republican leaders and voters generally while here. He will be at the Washington hotel. Mr. Williams is making an active campaign and has been meeting with much encouragement.

Candidate Williams is no stranger in Portsmouth. For many years he had edited the Jackson Standard Journal, one of the best Republican weeklies in Ohio. In his editorial policies he has been staunchly Republican, but he has at the same time been independent in his expression of political opinions. He was a great admirer of former President Roosevelt and supported him most effectively in his various campaigns.

Mr. Williams has had a wide public experience. He served for eight years as consul at Cardiff, Wales, during the administration of President McKinley. Later he was elected state senator for this district and served his constituents most admirably, making a fine record, being particularly friendly to the labor interests.

QUARTET HELD FOR MURDER

NEW YORK, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Minnie Reiser, her sons, Morris and George, and her brother, Max Katz, were indicted by a grand jury in Brooklyn today for first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Reiser's sister, Bertha Katz, whom Mrs. Reiser accused of stealing the love of her husband, "John the Barber." Reiser, widely known sport promoter. The quartet entered pleas of not guilty and were remanded to jail to await trial.

Thompson, Chatfield, Brown, Baker, Corn, Hough, Day Endorsed By Hamilton G. O. P.

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The Hamilton county Republican executive committee at a meeting here today endorsed Carmel A. Thompson for the nomination of governor on the Republican ticket in the August primaries.

The committee also endorsed W. H. Chatfield for lieutenant governor; Thad Brown for secretary of state; O. E. Baker for state treasurer; E. E. Corn for attorney general, and Benson W. Hough and Robert H. Day for the Ohio supreme court.

Prepared To Fight And Win, Say Eastern Rail Strikers

NEW YORK, July 28.—John Dowd, chairman of the eastern strike committee of the railroad shop crafts, today wired B. M. Jewell, national director, who is in Washington to confer with federal officials, saying: "We are prepared to fight and win if the eastern executives will not negotiate."

"We urge you to continue your efforts for a national settlement by peaceful negotiation. We urge you, however, under no circumstances to allow a settlement which will permit such roads as the Pennsylvania, New York Central and Erie to make headway in their un-American campaign against labor unionism and bonafide collective bargaining."

Rotarians Enjoy Meeting In Country

Forty-nine members of the Rotary Club were entertained Thursday evening at Taylorton Woods on the West Side. During the evening the members enjoyed a splendid talk by E. W. Gablman, Washington Correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer. His subject was "Washington Life As Seen From A Correspondent's Viewpoint."

Shoots Self And Mother

MANSFIELD, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Miller Owens, Jr., aged three, found his father's revolver early this morning. He regarded it as an interesting plaything, but it went off and the bullet seriously wounded both Miller and his mother. Passing through the boy's right lung, it lodged in Mrs. Owens' right side. Both are said to be in a serious condition.

Court House

Filed For Probate
The will of Anna Zeisler, who died recently at her home in this city was filed for probate Friday.

Going Back Home
Judge Will P. Stephenson of West Union who held a short session of court here Friday, will return home Saturday morning.

Case Set For Trial
The divorce and alimony suit of Goldie Davis against Ernest Davis has been assigned for hearing before Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Tuesday. Attorneys Blair and Blair represent the plaintiff.

Liquor Violator Draws Fine
Arrested at Lighthouse Beach Thursday night for having liquor in his possession, Howard Bazler, proprietor of a garage, 615 Third street, was brought to the county jail by Constable Akers, of Wheelersburg, when arraigned before Squire Morgan Friday, the accused admitted guilt. He was passed a fine of $200 and costs, which he arranged to pay and was released from custody.

Motion Taken Under Adversity
Arguments of counsel in support and against a motion offered by the plaintiff to revive the suit of Levi D. York against W. F. Sermore were heard by Judge Will P. Stephenson in Common Pleas court Friday and then taken under advisement.

The case is one of the oldest on the Common Pleas docket, having been brought several years ago to settle a dispute over the ownership of a strip of ground situated in the vicinity of the old mill lot, in the West End. The litigation has been long drawn out, the case having been tried three times in Common Pleas court and twice in Court of Appeals. Miller and Searl and T. C. Anderson are the opposing attorneys.

Rarden Wife Seeks Divorce
Mame Schuler, of Indian charges neglect and cruelty in her suit for divorce and alimony with custody of their minor child instituted in Common Pleas court Friday against Robert Schuler, former merchant at Rarden whom she married in September 1911.

In her petition filed through Attorneys Blair and Blair the plaintiff says that Schuler has so conducted himself in the night season and during the day, preventing her from sleeping and causing her to become sick and nervous, besides, she complains, he has abused her and their child by being cross and irritable, refused to eat at the same table, and declares he has kept up such a systematic course of conduct that she is unable to live with him longer.

The wife further says that last January she filed suit for divorce and alimony against the defendant, but that the action was later dismissed on his promises to cease doing the things complained of and they resumed their marital relations. Now she claims that Schuler failed to keep his promises but resumed his former ill treatment. She claims an interest in the defendant's mercantile business, now in the hands of a receiver, and secured a temporary injunction restraining him from disposing of encumbering his property until the suit can be heard on its merits.

Mary Hardin Granted Divorce
Mary Hardin, Soloto Furnace, has been granted a decree by Judge Thomas divorcing her from James Hardin, according to an approved entry filed in the office of the clerk of courts Friday.

The couple were married in 1911, and the decree was granted on the grounds of cruelty and infidelity on the recommendation of Attorney A. T. Holcomb, special commissioner, who heard the case and reported to the court.

The parties settled their property rights out of court and the defendant was given the custody of their two oldest children and the youngest child was awarded to the care of its mother. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Theo. K. Funk.

No Separate Agreements

LANSING, MICH., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, again has refused to permit Michigan coal miners to enter into an agreement with operators independently of their national union. This was reported to Governor Alex J. Groesbeck here today by Carl Young, state labor commissioner, following a conference in Philadelphia with Lewis. Young went to Philadelphia as a representative of the governor to appeal to Lewis because of a threatened shortage of coal here for state and municipal purposes.

BOY DROWNS WHILE FISHING
ZANESVILLE, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Peter Ellis, aged 10, drowned in forty feet of water below the dam in the Muskingum river this morning. The boy was fishing and stepped off a slippery rock. The body has not been recovered.

CHANGE TIME OF WEDDING

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Marilyn Miller and Jack Pickford today announced another change in the time of their wedding, this time to two p. m., July 30. In the marriage license Miss Miller gave her name as Carter, and age as 22, while Pickford said he was John C. Pickford, 25.

CONDITIONAL PARDON GRANTED

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor Davis today upon recommendation of Warden Thomas granted a conditional pardon to John Gedeon, Jr., Cleveland, convicted last September on a charge of receiving stolen property amounting to $70. He has a wife and two small children to support. His father also was said to be dying.

Says Government Encroaching On State Rights

SHELBY, NORTH CAROLINA, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Asserting that the federal government was engaged in a steady encroachment upon the rights of the states, Governor Morrison declared in an address last night to editors gathered for the convention of the North Carolina Press Association, that President Harding's request to state governors to invite a resumption of coal production under assurances of adequate protection constituted "an attempt to debauch the states."

The governor denounced what he termed "The benevolent despotism at Washington" and reviewing tendencies of unrest and disorders in the country declared these could be attributed to "non-enforcement of law" and to the policy of the federal government "in assuming to run all business and the right to do those things which the governors of the states alone can do for the welfare of the people."

Velie Price Is Lowered

Armbrister Bros. local dealers for the Velie automobile have just been notified of a drop in price. The car known as Model 38 has been selling for $1495 delivered price. It is now $1375 or a drop in price of $120. According to the telegram received from vice president F. E. Bradfield, "all the quality and beauty will be retained at the new price."

One Hour A Day In Jail For A Month

WEST HOBOKEN, N. J., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—James Marchestani, 16, must serve one hour a day in jail for ninety days for throwing stones at a house.

Recorder Walter has ordered the youth to report at the jail at 8:30 o'clock each night. He will be locked in a cell for one hour and then accompanied home by a policeman.

DEPUTY MARSHAL FAILED TO REACH JEWELL TO HAND HIM SUBPOENA

WASHINGTON, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—A deputy marshal armed with a subpoena for B. M. Jewell, head of the shopmen, in one of the numerous court orders, went after his man at the White House today, but failed to get him.

While Jewell was with the president, the deputy, confiding his business to a friendly policeman, was promised a high sign as Jewell was on his way out. But as he started to leave a whole brigade of reporters made a rush for him and the cop's high sign was crossed as it reached the deputy.

DO YOU KNOW?

That the Portsmouth Morning Sun is one of the very few morning papers in this section that publishes the box scores of both major baseball leagues?

To do this it is necessary to have two separate wire services. The Morning Sun receives the full Associated Press report over a leased telegraph wire. No other morning paper coming to Portsmouth can bring you any more complete report. In addition to this The Sun has set up a special telephone wire each night over which the baseball scores are received so as not to curtail the general news.

This is but one feature of The Sun which is causing Portsmouth's morning newspaper to grow in a manner most satisfactory to its promoters.

Boy Scout Tennis

The race for the Boy Scout Tennis championship is narrowing down. Twelve teams entered, and six have already been eliminated, leaving only six teams still in the race.

The Nature Troop entered six teams, and four have already been eliminated, leaving only two still in the running. Two teams from Troop are still in the race, one team from Troop 2 and one from Troop 15. In case any troop has two teams in the finals—when the last three teams will compete—they will not be scheduled against each other, but the team from the other Troop still in the race, will play them both.

KIDNAPPING CHARGE AGAINST DEPUTY

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of William J. Fritsch, private detective working out of Mayor Little's court in Loveland as a deputy marshal, charging him with kidnapping. It is charged that Mrs. Pearl Bell, wife of Clarence Bell, and her four year old boy were removed from their home in Richmond street, Cincinnati today by a deputy marshal, although both were said to be ill. It is also charged that Fritsch left a note for Mr. Bell, saying:

"We are holding your wife in Loveland until you appear for trial before the mayor of said village of Loveland to face a charge of possessing liquor. We advise you to appear or warrant will be sworn against you." This note is in the hands of Bell's attorney.

Mrs. Bell said five "raiders" entered the house while Mr. Bell was absent, and it is said found a small still, which, she asserted, had not been used since last winter.

"Rid Us Of Reed" And "Win With Reed" Slogans In Missouri's Hot Primary

ST. LOUIS, MO., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—"Rid us of Reed" and "Win with Reed" are some of the placards seen on business houses, sign boards, street cars and automobiles here. The placards refer to next Tuesday's state-wide primary election and reports reaching St. Louis say the rural districts have been placarded as heavily as the cities.

The contest between United States Senator James A. Reed and Breckinridge Long, third assistant secretary of state in the Wilson administration, for the Democratic senatorial nomination, overshadows every other contest. Veteran politicians say that never in the history of Missouri politics has the interest in a contest been so great and former President Wilson's action in sending several letters into Missouri, urging Reed's defeat, has lent national interest to the race.

Both Reed and Long have been expressing the greatest confidence of

Denies That Evangelist Is Father Of Her Child

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Testifying as a defense witness in the separate maintenance suit brought by Mrs. Lottie M. Trotter against her husband, Melvin E. Trotter, prominent evangelist, Miss Florence Moody, his former secretary, denied on the witness stand today that the evangelist was the father of a child born to her in 1917.

Miss Moody also denied there ever had been anything improper in her relations with Rev. Trotter. The charge that the evangelist was the father of Miss Moody's child was made by Mrs. Trotter in filing her suit and also reiterated in her testimony last week. Mrs. Trotter asserted her husband and Miss Moody had confessed the parentage to her.

Almost overcome with sobs and with tears trickling down her cheeks, Miss Moody was asked by counsel for Trotter:

"I ask you the direct question, was Mr. Trotter the father of the child born to you?"

"He wasn't," Miss Moody replied.

She testified she had confessed her condition to Mrs. Trotter on July 13, 1917, but asserted she refused to say who was responsible for it. "I told her I would die before I would tell who it was," she said.

Turns Down U. S. Offer Of Relief

MOSCOW, July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—After a month of negotiation, Leo Kumeoff, acting premier, has definitely refused the American relief administration's condition for feeding the Russian intellectuals as a class. The commonwealth fund offered to send food packages to the value of approximately $250,000 to Russia for distribution by the relief administration among professors, teachers, doctors, scientists and others selected by the relief authorities.

Watches Execution Of Murderess Of Her Husband

ESTANCIA, N. M., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Mrs. Centon Coury, widow of a Durant merchant, was a silent watcher at the hanging today of the three men convicted of her husband's murder, Carlos Renteria, Isidoro Miranda and Louis Medrano. The men were put on scaffolds and the three traps sprung simultaneously.

Johnson Says Day Of Demagogue Over

AKRON, O., July 28.—Speaking here last night Judge James C. Johnson, Democratic candidate for gubernatorial nomination, discussed taxation, insisting that all property bear an equal share of the expense of government. Failure of the last legislature to enact remedial taxation laws, Johnson said is a confession of weakness on the part of the present Republican party. "The day of the demagogue is over," he said, adding that "the man who boasts what he will do, without considering the constitutional and statutory limitations which will inhibit his actions after he is in office must be discarded. The time now is for action, not idle words."

Tennis Tournament Grows In Interest

Additional matches in the city tennis tournaments were played Thursday evening. Two teams in group D played. Most of the games were between Scouts, the games being played early in the day. The tie match between Lavitch and O'Brien and Anderson and Davidson went to the Trinity team, Anderson and Davidson. They played a tie third set Wednesday night 8 and 8 and last night the winning score was 7-5, the third set only being played over. The losers had the lead 4-2 and then 5-3, but lost out when Anderson and Davidson took four straight games.

In the Group D matches Adams and Evans won their match from Snyder and Bickle 6-0 and 6-3. Cranston and Spence won from McClure and Kimble 6-3 and 6-3.

Three more scout teams were eliminated in the Boy Scout tournament. The surprise of the whole tournament was sprung when Bassler and Smith of Troop 1, won from Dudul and Laudeman in two straight sets. Pride and McNamara, also of Troop 1, won theirs by default from Kaut and Knost and Linck and Marr, of Nature Troop, in the hottest battle yet, won from Hurth and LaBeds, 6-4, 6-3.

Games Today

Fred Gietel and Richard Stanley have taken the place of Prof. Appel and Russell Anderson, in Group A. Note also the numbers of the courts on Mound Park have been changed to give the tournament games better groups.

Doak, After No-Hit Record, Has Hard Luck

BY BILLY EVANS

The fates have been mighty unkind to Pitcher Bill Doak of the St. Louis Cardinals this year.

The ambition of every major league hurler is to break into the no-hit class at least once.

Twice this season Doak has turned in two performances in which the opposition made only one hit.

Now pitchers do not mind being deprived of a no-hit game if the only hit recorded is a real one. It is a matter of keen disappointment, however, when the only hit is of the fluky infield species.

Early in May, Doak turned in a one-hit affair against the New York Giants. His other one-hit game was in July, against the Phillies.

On each occasion the only hit made was a fluky infield tap, which ruled so slowly that the batsman was able to get the decision at first base by a scant margin.

BILL DOAK

So, after all, the working of a no-hit game is a matter of good pitching plus an equal amount of luck. This is particularly true when a pitcher works a game in which he shuts out the opposition without a hit, and prevents a single batsman from reaching first base.

I umpired the game early in the year when Robertson of Chicago pitched a no-run, no-hit, no-man-much-first game against the Detroit club.

This was a great feat. The fact that it was made against the Detroit club, one of the hardest-hitting aggregations in the game, made it all the more noteworthy.

That psychology also enters into unusual baseball feats as well as luck, was also proved in that game.

In the early innings the Tigers hit a half dozen balls hard. Three or four sensational catches prevented some of the drives from going for extra bases.

Inability to get the ball safe peered the Tigers. Some of the players began to insist that Robertson was deceiving the ball. Every inning a protest was lodged.

During the first four innings Robertson was hit fairly hard but was saved by good support. Then, by fusing over the ball, the Tigers took their minds off their work and the hitting slumped.

As a result, Robertson jogged through the last five innings in easy fashion. High-class pitching had been aided by luck and psychology.

Sets New World Record

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The free-for-all pace, one of the four events on Thursday's Grand Circuit program at the Columbus Driving Park track, developed into a world's record breaking affair when Sir Roche, a five year old pacing gelding defeated a field of eight in the three fastest heats ever paced by a gelding.

His miles were made in 2:50 1/4, 2:02 and 2:01. The former record was held by Saranado, made at Syracuse last year. Roy Gratton was the pace-maker in each heat, while Johnnie Quirk and Hal Mahone battled for the show position.

Sir Roche today became the sixteenth pacer to step a mile in less than two minutes. His 1:50 1/4 was rated by quarters as follows: 30, 30, 30 and 20 1/2 seconds.

Great Britain handily won the 2:05 trot, the Nell House stake purse $3,000, from Prince Loree, the favorite who was off form. E. Colorado made Great Britain step the fast trotting heat of the year in the second mile of this race which was "checked" at 2:03 1/4. This also was a new record for Great Britain.

The 2:10 class pace went to Neita Ditch, in straight heats. She was easy the best in the field. The final event of the card, the 2:19 class trot, was the poorest race of the meeting to date. There were eight starters and four of them were distanced. Tois Boy won this race.

Yanks Creep Up On Browns; Cards Falling Before Giants

NEW YORK, July 28.—Wallie Schang decided an eleven inning thriller put on by the Yankees in St. Louis with the Browns by knocking out a home run and clinching the game 6 to 5. Three pitchers climbed the mound for the Yanks while the Browns used four in their efforts to sustain their hold on first place.

Wallie Pipp started the festivities in the fourth inning with a circuit clout. He was responsible for bringing in three runs, and scored two himself.

The Giants at the Polo Grounds won their third straight game from the Cardinals 12 to 7 in an old-fashioned slugfest. Barnes pitched the whole distance for New York, while the St. Louis outfit tried four moundmen in an attempt to hold down the batting averages of McGraw's men. St. Louis collected four runs in the first inning to New York's two. They tied in the third and the Giants from then on could not be stopped. The Sox White and Red played air tight ball for ten innings before the Chicago outfit was able to take the game 4 to 3, by piling up two tallies with one out in the last half of the tenth. It also took the Braves on their home field ten innings to defeat the Cubs 8-7. Powell's triple and Nixon's single turned the trick with two out.

In Cleveland the Athletics put up a war dance that left Indians, by moaning a defeat 11-2. Cavelskie, who had won six games for Cleveland, was replaced by Taggart and Maltz, but the bats from the Quaker City always found the ball.

A seventh inning rally by the Phillies with a home run by Williams, his 16th, with two men on base, gave the home team a victory 6-5 over Cincinnati. Washington humbled the Tigers in Detroit to the tune of 9-1. Detroit getting its lone score off Zachary in the fifth inning. Itain prevented the game between Brooklyn and Pittsburgh.

Jackson-Wills Sign Contract

To Remove Post-Season Ban

CHICAGO, July 28.—(By the A. P.)—American League club owners, meeting here today, voted to remove the ban prohibiting players from participating in post-season exhibition games, provided they obtained the consent of the club president and then gained the permission of K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner.

This club owners said, will remove possibility of a recurrence of the situation that prevailed last year when Babe Ruth, Bob Meusel and Bill Piercy of the New York Yankees, were fined their share of the world series receipts, for participation in exhibition games in violation of Commissioner Landis' instructions. The club owners decided, however, that players will not be allowed to participate in exhibition contests, after October 31.

It also was agreed that not more than three players from any one club can play on any single team in an exhibition game.

Urge Action Against Unsportsmanlike Tactics

AKRON, July 28.—Without a dissenting vote, the League of Ohio Sportsmen in annual midseason convention here today adopted resolutions aimed against the flagrant practice of unsportsmanlike tactics on the part of Ohio fishermen and hunters.

One resolution adopted favors enactment of state legislation providing for a closed spawning season and thus fishing for bass, blue gills, sunfish, catfish and croppies between May 1 and June 16. Another limits the number of lines used by one fisherman at any time to two with not more than three single hooks attached or with lures of more than three sets of treble hooks.

Resolutions recommending that laws be passed providing for the licensing of anglers, for the destruction of all string dugs and cats and for the prevention of further pollution of streams and inland bodies in Ohio, were endorsed.

Another resolution adopted favors an open season on the rooster and eagle, neither of which is classed as song or game birds, "from January 1 to December 31, inclusive of each year."

Fine Time At Picnic

All of the two hundred who attended the celebration of the Peerless lodge K. of P. picnic and outing held at Bressler's Camp yesterday afternoon and evening voted it one of the greatest of its kind ever held in the history of the lodge.

The features of the outing were bathing, dancing, supper on the sand bar, contests and games.

In the contest for the farthest horseshoe pitch, Ralph Brady took the prize which was a box of cigars.

while E. N. Brady took the horseshoe tournament.

J. B. Ross, Ed Knaus and E. N. Brady were the committee in charge of arrangements.

Tendler Gives Leonard A Hard Battle

NEW YORK, July 28.—(By P. P.)—Benny Leonard still holds the world's lightweight boxing championship, but he realizes that Lew Tendler, Philadelphia left-hander, is neither a "second" nor a "dub." Leonard walked out of the great pine bowl on Boyl's Thirty Acres last night with the crown perched far back on his head. Had the challenger the stamina to hold the lead he gained in the early rounds he would have knocked it off. Leonard won by the purest of shades.

The bout went the full twelve rounds and under the law of New Jersey there was no official decision. The verdict is that of a majority of the newspaper writers at the ringside.

The champion of yesterday is the champion of today because he had the reserve strength to take the lead when Tendler faltered after boxing him all over the ring for four rounds.

Leonard was visibly dazed until this juncture. The rally of the titleholder in the fifth, sixth and seventh rounds nettled and rattled the Philadelphia but in the eighth Lew came back for a spell. Leonard brought him back with two right belts to the jaw. Tendler blinked. They clinched. Tendler then shot a left, another and another, all to the champion's jaw. Leonard's knees sagged and he clutched Tendler's shoulders, resting there. There was almost as much conversation—bitter colloquy—as there was fighting in the ninth. They were even on both scores.

Tendler was annoyed in the tenth by the champion's two pattering hands. So Leonard let up, then feinted. Straight sprang a hair trigger. Straight rights and laces to head and body sent Tendler reeling to the ropes. Tendler fought back, but the going stopped that.

They both missed often in the last two rounds, but Leonard's sharp shooting right was the more accurate. Leonard's big failure was in his legs. Not until near the finish did he brace about as is his wont, striking and darting away. He could not more do this than Tendler could pound his body, for the challenger was crowding him—almost stepping upon him—forcing the fight.

Not often is Benny Leonard hard put. Occasions have been rare when a fighter in the midst of battle has said to him, "Come on and fight." Tendler said it repeatedly. Leonard says he is at the height of his career. Tendler frankly admits that he'll grow into a better fighter.

After Tex Rickard announced today that the receipts from the Leonard-Tendler fight were about $450,000 fight fans estimated that the lightweight champion would get about $101,250, while Tendler would get about $30,000. Rickard's estimate for the battle were reckoned at $15,000 aside from the fighters' shares and his profit was declared to be $127,500.

The Fight Round By Round

ROUND ONE—The bell rang at 9:28. Tendler was short with two rights and then landed a light left. They fell into a clinch and began dancing around. Tendler landed a left hook to the chest, and followed with a light left to the body. Tendler landed another left and then two sharp rights to the body. Tendler was rushing the champion. Tendler slipped and fell and standing up, slowly wiped off the dust from his gloves. Tendler landed a hard left to the champion's head, cutting his right eye. DeMarco's Manager Explains

Manager Jimmy Morgan of Charleston, who looks after the affairs of DeMarco of Huntington, has written The Times explaining why he could not have DeMarco here for Wednesday night's bout with Blair. Morgan's explanation: "Sporting Editor Times

Dear Sir:—It is with regret that I wish to advise you that we were unable to accept an offer to box Nig Blair at Portsmouth on the 26th. This was due to the fact that we were already signed to box Johnny Donnelly of Uniontown at Charleroi, Pa. We made several unsuccessful attempts to have the promoter release us from our agreement to box and finally were compelled to notify your local promoter that it was impossible for us to box Blair on the 26th.

However, we shall be very glad to box Blair at the next or any future show on the terms offered by Mr. W. S. Harris.

DeMarco has boxed Earl Butler on two different occasions and the consensus of opinion of the various local experts who witnessed the bouts was that the boys were too evenly matched to give either one a slight slide. The outcome of the Butler-

Friday, July 28—Excelsior vs. Central Labor.

While the contest between the Excelsior and the Vulcan Lasters at the North End lot last evening was a "dog fall" and fruitless in results, yet the big crowd hugely enjoyed the terrific struggle which ended when Umpire Buck Yeager called off hostilities by reason of the gathering darkness with the count knotted at the two mark after the two teams had worked through seven fast rounds.

The combat was really a stirring pitchers battle between "Doc" Baughman, the pitching ace of the second placers and Walter Greene, the clever right hander who was on the hill for the shokmakers. Both twirlers were extremely effective and showed their class in the few tight pinches along the route and came through on even terms. They allowed but five hits each and the crack sidewheeler was in his best form except in one round the third, when the enemy bunched three hits, two of which were doubles, and rung up their only two markers. Greene also was master of the situation in six of the seven sessions and for a time it looked like he would come through with a shutout to his credit. During the first five innings the Shultz crowd garnered but two singles off his output but in the sixth the break came which enabled the second placers to register two markers which put them on even terms and kept them in the contest. The Hon-fiddle lad made the fatal mistake of passing Rollins, first up, in the sixth, but at that time Greene would have got by but for a couple of mean braeks which followed. McDaniel and Keyser both getting on through some slow work by the infield. Doherty's low throw to the plate on Haupt's easy roller admitted Rollins and on Meyer's sacrifice fly to center McDaniel rolled over the pan with the tying run.

Here's how it was played, play by play:

McDaniel's throw Stewart's foul after a hard run. Goode threw Weber at first. Goode and Statten took of Doherty's roller. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Cunningham made a one-handed catch of Shultz's fly. Statten went on, second to first. Rollins singled over short. McDaniel forced Rollins at second. Doherty to Elssessor. No runs, one hit, no errors.

CARDS LOSE THIRD STRAIGHT
NEW YORK, July 28.—The New York Giants made it three straight over St. Louis yesterday, winning by a score of 12 to 7. Four Cardinal pitchers were smothered under an avalanche of hits, Bancroft, Rawlings and Kelly leading the attack with three apiece. Bancroft had an odd record, scoring once in each of the first four innings. Stock featured for the losers, driving in six runs with two home run drives. John Stuart, former Ohio State star, started for the Cardinals, but was taken out after pitching to three batters.

GROW WITH PORTSMOUTH

THE "boom" town is ever alluring to large numbers, in that it seemingly offers the opportunity to grow up with the place. To get in on the ground floor, so to speak, at first blush, prompts great numbers to rush to the new place, where they will find many others who had been attracted in the same manner.

They seek their new home with the avowed purpose of growing up with the town and that determination, serves as an impetus for extra effort. If perchance the ambitions of its founders are realized, those with that determination to grow with the place will succeed, provided the determination is sincere and a proportionate amount of energy is displayed in their efforts.

Have you grown with Portsmouth; have you kept pace with its advancement and development? There has been no boom here, as that term is usually applied to the growth of the so-called mushroom cities that spring to life over night, only to fade away almost as quickly. There has been, however, a healthy, steady, wonderful growth and advancement here for the past ten years. True there has been no stream of prospectors added to the normal growth to cause the population to increase as rapidly as has been the case in many other cities of this size.

The growth in wealth and health has been phenomenal. The advancement in civic improvement, its streets, churches, schools, residences, factories is such that there is just cause for exceeding pride.

There have been and are now as great opportunities for success here as there are in those new or proposed boom towns. The opportunity to grow up with the place, to get in on the ground floor holds as good in Portsmouth as the other places. If your desire to grow up with the city is real, there will be the accomplishment. If your desire to grow up with Portsmouth has been sincere and the effort expended sufficient, you have grown up with it.

The drifters who have been content to let the city forge ahead of them, who have not had sufficient faith in their home to keep abreast and grow up with it, have that opportunity today. It may be late, but not too late to awaken to the possibilities which are so apparent to those who have grown up with the city. Readjustment of thought and the creating of faith, may be difficult, but true ambition to catch up and keep up will assure the attainment.

One of the first qualifications necessary for growth with the city is the knowledge of its growth. It may grow all around you in many ways, invisible because you are not strictly a part of it. Becoming identified with the men and agencies that are promoting and largely responsible for the growth will give you the vision to see and appreciate development made and likely to be.

Portsmouth is going to continue to grow and develop. You may if you choose grow with it. When you do so, yours and the city's growth will be mutual. In just the proportion in which your aid is given in the advancement and development, will the return be by the city.

If dormant, the ambition in you should be awakened, if lacking, it should be created. Self interest alone asks and community interest demands that you grow with the city and that the city grow with you.

PUNISH AUTO THIEVES

AUTOMOBILE stealing in this country has increased so rapidly during the last year that owners of cars have suffered a loss of $100,000,000. That is the value estimated by experts. The National Automobile Dealers' Association reports that for 1921 the number stolen was 37,554; for 1920, 30,046, and for 1919, 33,508, so that this species of crime is increasing.

The need of federal regulation to curb automobile stealing is now being advocated. In Pittsburgh yesterday three youths confessed to the stealing of forty automobiles in this city within the last few months. Even where cars are recovered the owners are put to great inconvenience and expense. Police officers also are kept busy running down the malefactors.

Increase in penalties has been suggested as well as more care on the part of owners in looking after their property. Careful owners now have to bear the cost of their carelessness in the shape of huge insurance premiums. The hand of the law should be laid heavily on the offenders and sentences imposed that will be a salutary warning.

A LESSON FOR ADVERTISERS

THE other day we saw an article in an exchange which read something like this:

Once upon a time, a man had a furnace which was not heating his home with satisfaction. One day he became angry and going down to the basement stood before the furnace and exclaimed: "Not another lump of coal will you get until you give me more heat." The poor fellow froze to death.

Herein is a lesson for advertisers. Some men put a little ad in the paper and if it doesn't bring the results that he expected, he says: "I won't advertise again until the other ad brings results." So the poor fellow freezes to death.

For further proof of this look up statistics and compare the figures of failures among advertisers with the figures of failures of non-advertisers—those who freeze to death.

THE ARK BROUGHT BACK TO ISRAEL

THE Philistines were afraid to keep the ark longer. They took two cows and tied them to a new cart and laid the ark in the cart and let the cows wander where they would. They went to the land of Israel to Beth-shemesh into a field of a man named Joshua and stood beside a great stone. Some men of the tribe of Levi laid the ark upon the stone, then broke the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering. Then the ark was taken to Kirjath-jearim into the house of Abinadab where it was kept many years.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 28—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Marvels never cease! An actress dodging a camera. A moon faced poet. A thermostat of moods. And a prize cut-up at studio teas. Soggy, dripping skies. My suit needs pressing. But why be meticulous? Whatever that is.

Gorgeous salamanders, sparkling with high voltage. Beauty bright with death. Wonder why Ed Wynn is on crutches? They're beginning to dismantle the old Claridge. Lee Shubert spoke to me. Headline: "Country Boy Makes Good in Big City."

Something something about the atmosphere of Gramercy Park. And a restful air about The Players. Just a few steps from here David Graham Phillips was pistolled by a madman. And around the corner the vulgar, vicious launts of Greenwich Village. The Neighborhood of O. Henry, Owen Kildaro and Masefield. Now strident with the babble of alien tongues. And the nights songless and forlorn. I like to stroll in the old Bryant. And look at the racks of foreign journals. The last spark of an old district where genius once blazed. There is a call to the open road and sword.

Instead I'll take a crowded street. And I always fear those pistol-like blue clutching fare collectors will nip my fingers. Young Celtic conductors with entrancing brogues. Who cast eyes demurely down as ladies climb the circular staircases.

Army of garment workers taking their noon day stroll. Yiddish newspaper extras. Old men in skull caps puffing constantly at cigarettes. Some reading the Talmud. Full bosomed young girls. Many just a few months off immigrant ships. But thrilling to the new world about them.

In one of the large moving picture houses—advertised as "the largest in the world"—there is a slim, graceful young orchestra conductor with a mop of wavy black hair. His symphony orchestra occupies more than a hundred chairs and his entrances are dramatic events. He waits until all have been seated and comes on with a rush as the lights come up. Ladies gasp in admiration and he receives more applause than any other number on the bill. The press agent the other day showed me a day's batch of good sized waste baskets. "What does he do with them?" I asked. He replied: "O, he takes them home and he and his wife read them together."

The heavy rains in the East have worked immeasurable hardship upon the summer resorts. It is a financial

Twilight in the Valleylands

And would you find a place for peace
Where gypsy souls may rest?
Then come when dusk lies, clover-sweet,

Upon the prairie's breast.
To Mississippi's Valleylands
That are not east nor west.

It is the hour of witchery—
The darkling roads grow white
And rolling hillsides, green with corn,
Turn gray before the night;
All suddenly some far-off town
Sends out a saffron light.

It is the hour of witchery
When gypsy hearts may rest,
When tired eyes go visioning
And dreamers find their quest
At twilight in the Valleylands
That are not east nor west.

Two Dollars Saved

A man rushed up to the home of a doctor in the village late one night and asked him to come at once to a distant farmhouse.

The doctor hitched up his horse and they drove furiously to the farmer's home.

Upon their arrival the farmer asked, "How much is your fee, doctor?"

"Three dollars," said the physician in surprise.

"Here you are," handing over the money; "the blamed liverman wanted $5 to drive me home."

You remember casual introductions in public are made only as a matter of convenience and courtesy and rarely deserve any recognition later.
